Critical Writing for Embodied Approaches Elizabeth Mackinlay, 2019-02-21 Autoethnography is a unique discipline which steps inside and outside the self to experience embody and express social and cultural meaning At once a performative political and poetic genre of research writing it holds the potential to uncover the heart of the world if only for a moment The author uses theory as story and story as theory to explore her place in the world through painstaking and intimate self and social narratives to lay bare the unique challenges and rewards of autoethnography Framed around the metaphor of heartlines the author explores autoethnographic practice as critical feminist and decolonial work and the power it holds for not only imagining a wise ethical and loving world but for making such a kind place possible Through a performative journey of the heart we travel with the author as she unearths the power of words of writing and not writing evoking in particular the work of Hélène Cixous and Virginia Woolf This reflective passionate and pioneering volume will be of interest and value to all those interested in autoethnography and the ways in which it can be applied as critical ethical and political work in the social sciences

Critical Autoethnography and Écriture Feminine Elizabeth Mackinlay, Renée Mickelburgh, 2023-10-11 The project offers a collection of new interdisciplinary critical autoethnographic engagements with Hélène Cixous critique feminine and work Three steps on the ladder of writing Critical autoethnography shares a reciprocal and inter animating relationship with Hélène Cixous critique feminine feminine writing and in this collection authors explore that inter animation by explicitly engaging with Three steps on the ladder of writing Three steps is a poetic insightful and ultimately moving reflection on the writing process and explores three distinct areas essential for writing The School of the Dead the notion that something or someone must die in order for good writing to be born The School of Dreams the crucial role dreams play in literary inspiration and output and The School of Roots the importance of depth in the nether realms in all aspects of writing Topics covered include ways Cixous work can address the need for loss and reparation in writing critical autoethnography how Cixous writing makes our body speak through concepts of birth and the body in through and of critical autoethnography whether writing in this way recast and reform prevailing orders of domination and oppression and how Cixous writing around the ethics of loving and giving translates into response able and non violent forms of critical autoethnography in relation to otherness and difference In this collection we invite you to Let us go to the school of critical autoethnographic writing Cixous 1993 p 3 with the work of Hélène Cixous and speak in a different way and through a different medium of academic language in an approach that reveals the tensions the paradoxes the pains and the pleasures of writing with critical autoethnography in the contemporary university Queer Writing E. Stephens, 2009-07-16 Queer Writing provides the first full length study of homoeroticism in Jean Genet's fiction It shows how the theory of writing elaborated in his work provides a new way to understand homosexual literature not as the inscription of a stable sexual subjectivity but as the mobilization of a perverse dynamic within the text Animal Philosophy Matthew Calarco, Peter Atterton, 2004-07-30 Animal Philosophy is the first text to look at the place and treatment of animals in Continental thought A collection of essential primary and secondary readings on the animal question it brings together contributions from the following key Continental thinkers Nietzsche Heidegger Bataille Levinas Foucault Deleuze Guattari Derrida Ferry Cixous and Irigaray Each reading is followed by commentary and analysis from a leading contemporary thinker The coverage of the subject is exceptionally broad ranging across perspectives that include existentialism poststructuralism postmodernism phenomenology and feminism This anthology is an invaluable one stop resource for anyone researching teaching or studying animal ethics and animal rights in the fields of philosophy cultural studies literary theory sociology environmental studies and gender and women's studies New Woman Strategies Ann Heilman, 2004-09-04 Recent years have seen a renaissance of scholarly interest in the fin de siècle fiction of the New Woman New Woman Strategies offers a new approach to the subject by focusing on the discursive strategies and revisionist aesthetics of the genre in the writings of three of its key exponents Sarah Grand 1854 1943 Olive Schreiner 1855 1920 and Mona Caird 1854 1932 The study explores how each writer drew on mimicked feminized and ultimately transformed traditional literary and cultural tropes and paradigms femininity allegory and mythology These Are Love(D) Letters Ames Hawkins, 2019-10-15 Intimate and unwavering exploration of love loss and the queer possibilities inherent in artistic aspiration Ames Hawkins's These are Love d Letters is a genre bending visual memoir and work of literary nonfiction that explores the questions What inspires a person to write a love letter What inspires a person to save a love letter even when the love has shifted or left And what does it mean when a person uses someone else's love letters as a place from which to create their own sense of self Beginning with the simple act of the author receiving twenty letters written by her father to her mother over a six week period in 1966 These are Love d Letters provides a complex pictorial and textual exploration of the work of the love letter Through intimate and incisive prose the letters were after all always intended to be a private dialogue between her parents Hawkins weaves her own struggles with gender sexuality and artistic awakening in relation to the story of her parents marriage that ended in divorce Her father's HIV diagnosis and death by complications related to AIDS provide the context for an unflinchingly honest look at bodily disease and mortality Hawkins delicately and relentlessly explores the tensions in a father daughter relationship that stem from a differently situated connection to queer identity and a shared struggle with artistic desire In communion with queer and lesbian writers from Emily Dickinson and Virginia Woolf to Alison Bechdel and Maggie Nelson Hawkins pushes exploration of the self with the same intellectual rigor that she critiques the limits of epistolarity by continually relocating all the generative and arresting creative powers of this found art with scholarly rhetorical strategies Exquisitely designed by Jessica Jacobs These are Love d Letters presents an affective experience that reinforces Hawkins's meditations on the ephemeral beauty of love letters As poetic as it is visually enticing the book offers both an unconventional and queer ed understanding of the documentarian form which will excite both readers and artists across and beyond genres French Feminist Theory (III) Joan Nordquist, 1996 Labor, Writing Technologies, and the Shaping of Composition in the Academy Pamela Takayoshi, Patricia Sullivan, 2007 The changing nature of the workforce and the increasing presence of technologies in composition studies promise to affect not only the ways we work but the very shape of the discipline This volume takes on the challenge of thinking about the intersections of work technology and composition studies in ways that are unprecedented These areas interact in numerous and significant ways yet the focus is often on the concepts in isolation from one another Authors in this collection explore technology and labor issues across a range of institutional locations to focus on working as scholars administrators of writing programs writing across the curriculum programs assessment programs teachers workers held accountable to bureaucrats and gendered and raced workers and the future roles compositions will adopt in the university and how technology affects those identities The chapters address the nature of composition labor in a technological society the new geographies of composition variety of identity and agency that are enabled and denied academic labor outside the classroom and academy and how virtuality impacts labor They provide varied perspectives on what issues are of import and alert researchers and teachers that a serious consideration of labor and writing technologies are needed to expand notions of what composition studies can and must be Publisher's description
