This Time We Knew Western Responses To Genocide In Bosnia:

This Time We Knew Thomas Cushman, Stjepan Gabriel Meštrović, 1996-10 This book punctures once and for all common excuses for Western inaction in the face of incontrovertible evidence of the most egregious crimes against humanity to occur in Europe since World War II      The Postmodern Challenge: Perspectives East and West, 2023-12-04 This volume is designed to bridge a gap in the current theoretical debate about the nature scope and relevance of postmodern perspectives in the humanist and social sciences in Eastern and Western Europe While the debate has been reasonably comprehensive and certainly abrasive in Western European and Anglophone countries it has signally failed to incorporate the viewpoints of Eastern European scholars and intellectuals Even the current appropriation of Mikhail Bakhtin as a prophet of the postmodern is paradoxically a monologic engagement with his thought rather than a dialogic encounter of cultures Doubtless different historical experiences ideology and social aspirations go some way to account for the weariness of Eastern Europe with postmodern challenge and its glad embrace by Western scholars The volume comprises some fifteen essays by leading historians literary theorists and social scientists from Western and Eastern Europe and America It has a threefold aim firstly to illuminate the distinctiveness of current Western and Eastern European theorizing about history and society secondly to reveal points of tension and disagreement and finally to open up a space for a meeting of seemingly incompatible worlds

Prosecuting War Crimes and Genocide Howard Ball, 1999 Combining history politics and critical analysis he revisits the killing fields of Cambodia documents the three month Hutu machete genocide of about 800 000 Tutsi villagers in Rwanda and casts recent headlines from Kosovo in the light of these other conflicts BOOK JACKET      Security as Practice Lene Hansen, 2013-04-03 This important text offers a full and detailed account of how to use discourse analysis to study foreign policy It provides a poststructuralist theory of the relationship between identity and foreign policy and an in depth discussion of the methodology of discourse analysis Part I offers a detailed discussion of the concept of identity the intertextual relationship between official foreign policy discourse and oppositional and media discourses and of the importance of genres for authors ability to establish themselves as having authority and knowledge Lene Hansen devotes particular attention to methodology and provides explicit directions for how to build discourse analytical research designs Part II applies discourse analytical theory and methodology in a detailed analysis of the Western debate on the Bosnian war This analysis includes a historical genealogy of the Western construction of the Balkans as well as readings of the official British and American policies the debate in the House of Commons and the US Senate Western media representations academic debates and travel writing and autobiography Providing an introduction to discourse analysis and critical perspectives on international relations this book will be essential reading for students and scholars of international relations discourse analysis and research methodology      Killer Images Joram ten Brink, Joshua Oppenheimer, 2013-01-08 Cinema has long shaped not only how mass violence is perceived but also how it is performed Today when media coverage is central to the execution of terror campaigns and news anchormen serve as embedded journalists a critical understanding of how the moving image is implicated in the imaginations and actions of perpetrators and survivors of violence is all the more urgent If the cinematic image and mass violence are among the defining features of modernity the former is significantly implicated in the latter and the nature of this implication is the book's central focus This book brings together a range of newly commissioned essays and interviews from the world's leading academics and documentary filmmakers including Ben Anderson Errol Morris Harun Farocki Rithy Phan Avi Mograbi Brian Winston and Michael Chanan Contributors explore such topics as the tension between remembrance and performance the function of moving images in the execution of political violence and nonfiction filmmaking methods that facilitate communities of survivors to respond to recover and redeem a history that sought to physically and symbolically annihilate them

Postmodernity and Genocide in Bosnia Slaven Letica,1997 Framing War and Genocide Gregory Kent,2006 Although just a decade ago the destruction of a European state and society through war and genocide remains one of the worst global crises of the post Cold War era with reverberations still felt today Bombardment and sieges of major towns and cities concentration and death camps and the mass slaughter and expulsion of civilians were all characteristics of a type of warfare that Europe had never dreamed might return The war against Bosnia had a major impact on European and wider global consciousness being as it was then the most reported debated and analyzed conflict to date But despite the extensive coverage of Bosnia the author contends the conflict and its origins were certainly misunderstood there being a significant gulf between media perspectives and the thrust of academic discourse This multidisciplinary book is based on extensive research into the TV and newspaper framing of the war during the critical early period of its development Uniquely the analysis of media is underpinned by an extensive and detailed historical argument about the nature of the wars and the politics of the Federation including the use of media in war making strategies in Yugoslavia itself It will be of interest to scholars of IR and politics media communication and journalism studies and war and genocide studies Journalists and the general reader will find the book accessible with valuable insights into reporting war and understanding media representation of conflict Key issues and questions addressed include the critical use of official sources and propaganda in journalism how media and policymakers interact to define and frame problems for policy action what factors limit the accurate reporting of war what is genocide and how is the Genocide Convention relevant in practice and how to report genocide when such coverage conflicts with state interests
