Mathematics Teacher Training and Development in Africa Kakoma Luneta, Marc Schäfer, 2024-10-09 This edited volume addresses the need for reforms in mathematics teacher training spurred by scientific advancements and societal changes encompassing calls for changes in curricula content and instructional methods. The text highlights the complexities of teaching mathematics specifically within Africa. It provides an exploration into how mathematics teacher training has evolved to address challenges such as ineffective teaching approaches, lack of resources, technological limitations, and outdated training programs. Through comprehensive systematic reviews for each country in the African region, documentation is provided on the past, present, and envisioned future of teacher training programs. This undertaking provides a detailed analysis of mathematics teacher training, offering valuable insights for teacher trainers, government ministries of education, and stakeholders across Africa. For anyone invested in enhancing mathematics education in the region, this book offers indispensable guidance and knowledge.

Radical Solutions for Education in Africa Daniel Burgos, Jako Olivier, 2021-08-02 This book explores the state of open education in terms of self-directed learning on the African continent. Through a combination of conceptual systematic literature review and empirical chapters, readers will get a research-based impression of these aspects in this area. Apart from presenting existing wider trends regarding open education, this book also reports on effective open practices in support of self-directed learning.
