

Band Concert

Mark's fingers trembled against the keys of his clarinet as he sat under the bright stage lights, the weight of the audience pressing down on him. The concert hall was packed — parents, teachers, and students filled every seat, their expectant faces beamed onto the stage. The low hum of whispered conversations faded as the conductor raised his baton.

Mark brought the reed to his lips, and the band launched into the first piece, a fast-paced march. Mark played with more bravado, his training taking over despite the nervous energy coiled in his chest. The music swelled, filling the room with a rich, vibrant harmony. Yet his mind remained fixed on what was coming — the solo.

It was only ten measures, a brief melody that floated above the rest of the ensemble. But in those moments, he would be completely exposed. If he faltered, everyone would hear it.

The cue arrived. Mark inhaled deeply, lifted his clarinet, and played. The first note was steady, then the next, each measure flowing beautifully into the air. The sound resonated through the hall, delicate yet strong. The nerves melted away, replaced by exhilaration.

The final note rang out, and for a heartbeat, there was silence. Then, applause erupted.

Mark exhaled, a grin tugging at his lips. He had done it!
