McKenna,2003-01-21 One of today's most popular and respected Catholic writers presents the first guide to the new Stations of the Cross reflecting the revisions made by Pope John Paul II A traditional devotion for Catholics for more than four hundred years the Stations of the Cross commemorates the route Jesus traveled from being sentenced to death crucified and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of Jerusalem In the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the Gospels Over the past eight years however Pope John Paul II has made substantial changes to the devotion in his Good Friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the Bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of Christ's passion The revised Stations of the Cross focuses on the condemned Jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross

Unrelieved by stories like Veronica's wiping blood off the face of Jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution The new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which Jesus was subjected In explaining his reasons for revising the stations the Pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the Scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship In this helpful authoritative guide Megan McKenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that Pope

John Paul II uses on Good Friday She also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day Catholics and Episcopalian A Walk in Jerusalem John Peterson,1998-02-15 Experience the Stations of the Cross as the Secretary General of the Anglican Communion provides a meditation and brief liturgy for each episode of the Passion story Learn the meaning of the Passion Narratives and receive the encouragement to live as Christ did Illustrated with a map photos and drawings All Proceeds from the sale of this book will benefit the bursary fund at St George s College Jerusalem

Via Dolorosa Martin Shannon,2020-01-21 Based on early Christian practice pilgrims to Jerusalem reconstructed the events of Good Friday along the Way of Suffering the Via Dolorosa The Spanish nun Egeria writes of her own experience with this in her fourth century Holy Week journal In the Middle Ages the Franciscans and Dominicans particularly picked up on the ritual and transported it from Jerusalem to chapels and churches outside the Holy Land If one could not make the pilgrimage to the place of Jesus s passion then the place could be brought to the pilgrim even in his or her own home town Over the centuries the Stations of the Cross spread across Europe and the British Isles Eventually fourteen stations were set with accompanying books of readings and prayers to guide the Good Friday pilgrims as they walked the way with Christ going with him as he bore his cross from the court of Pilate to the hill of Golgotha from his judgment and condemnation to his death and deposition from the cross Allow these scriptures meditations and prayers to accompany you as you walk and pray the Stations of the Cross with Christ

Stations of the Cross Thomas R. Haney,1999 Praying the Stations of the Cross enables us to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ himself Evidence dating as far back as the second century AD acknowledges the fact that Christians began this holy practice from the very earliest times in the Church The Stations of the Cross recall the passion and death of the savior They help us remember the great price that Jesus paid for our salvation In this book Father Haney provides three additional features to the traditional stations that help the reader become even more enriched by this practice a fresh
