Step Across This Line Collected Nonfiction 1992 2002:

Step Across This Line Salman Rushdie, 2010-11-05 From one of the great novelists of our day a vital brilliant new book of essays speeches and articles essential for our times Step Across This Line showcases the other side of one of fiction's most astonishing conjurors On display is Salman Rushdie's incisive thoughtful and generous mind in prose that is as entertaining as it is topical The world is here captured in pieces on a dazzling array of subjects from New York's Amadou Diallo case to the Wizard of Oz from U2 to fifty years of Indian writing from a tribute to Angela Carter to the struggle to film Midnight's Children The title essay was originally delivered at Yale as the 2002 Tanner lecture on human values and examines the changing meaning of frontiers in the modern world moral and metaphorical frontiers as well as physical ones The collection chronicles Rushdie's intellectual journeys but it is also an intimate invitation into his life he explores his relationship to India through a moving diary of his first visit there in over a decade A Dream of Glorious Return Step Across This Line also includes Messages From the Plague Years a historic set of letters articles and reflections on life under the fatwa Gathered together for the first time this is Rushdie's humane intelligent and angry response to a grotesque threat aimed not just at him but at free expression itself Step Across This Line Salman Rushdie's first collection of non-fiction in a decade has the same energy imagination and erudition as his astounding novels along with some very strong opinions Step Across this Line Salman Rushdie, 2002 The subjects of Salman Rushdie's new collection of non-fiction range from The Wizard of Oz U2 India and Indian writing the death of Princess Diana and football to twentieth century writers including Angela Carter Arthur Miller Edward Said J M Coetzee and Arundhati Roy In a central section Messages from the Plague Years Rushdie focuses on the fight against the Iranian fatwa presenting texts both personal and political which show for the first time how it was to live through those days Rushdie's columns for the New York Times confront current issues Kashmir Northern Ireland Kosovo Islam and the West as well as lighter topics such as reality TV sport and sleaze The book ends with the lectures that give it its title Rushdie's exploration of the theme of frontiers crossing them breaking taboos and in the light of September 11 the world of permeable frontiers in which we all live The Oxford Encyclopedia of British Literature David Scott

Kastan, 2006-03-03 From folk ballads to film scripts this new five volume encyclopedia covers the entire history of British literature from the seventh century to the present focusing on the writers and the major texts of what are now the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland In five hundred substantial essays written by major scholars the Encyclopedia of British Literature includes biographies of nearly four hundred individual authors and a hundred topical essays with detailed analyses of particular themes movements genres and institutions whose impact upon the writing or the reading of literature was significant An ideal companion to The Oxford Encyclopedia of American Literature this set will prove invaluable for students scholars and general readers For more information including a complete table of contents and list of contributors please visit www.oup.com/us/ebL Self, Nation, Text in Salman Rushdie's "Midnight's Children" Neil ten Kortenaar, 2004-01-21

Many non Indian readers find the historical and cultural references in Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children demanding. In his close reading of the novel, Neil ten Kortenaar offers post colonial literary strategies for understanding Midnight's Children that also challenge some of the prevailing interpretations of the novel. Using hybridity, mimicry, national allegory, and cosmopolitanism, all key critical concepts of postcolonial theory, ten Kortenaar reads Midnight's Children as an allegory of history as a Bildungsroman and psychological study of a burgeoning national consciousness and as a representation of the nation. He shows that the hybridity of Rushdie's fictional India is not created by different elements forming a whole but by the relationship among them. Self Nation Text in Salman Rushdie's Midnight's Children also makes an original argument about how nation states are imagined and how national consciousness is formed in the citizen. The protagonist Saleem Sinai heroically identifies himself with the state but this identification is beaten out of him until in the end he sees himself as the Common Man at the mercy of the state. Ten Kortenaar reveals Rushdie's India to be more self-conscious than many communal identities based on language; it is an India haunted by a dark twin called Pakistan, a nation in the way England is a nation but imagined against England. Mistrusting the openness of Tagore's Hindu India, it is both cosmopolitan and a specific subjective location.

Postcolonial Literature: An Introduction Pramod K. Nayar, Postcolonial writing originating from Africa, Asia, and South America in the mid twentieth century has constantly examined, negotiated with, and reacted to the overarching experience of colonial subjugation. Postcolonial Literature: An Introduction with its seven thematically organized chapters lucidly elucidates complex concepts and formulations of postcolonial literature and theory and critically analyses their various dimensions with relevant examples from contemporary postcolonial writing. The book would also appeal to the general reader aiming to gain a thorough understanding of the fundamental themes and discourses of postcolonial literature.

The Facts on File Companion to the British Short Story Andrew Maunder, 2007. A comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Commonwealth. With approximately 450 entries, this A to Z guide explores the literary contributions of such writers as Joseph Conrad, James Joyce, D. H. Lawrence, Rudyard Kipling, Oscar Wilde, Katherine Mansfield, Martin Amis, and others.

Translating Borrowed Tongues Ma Carmen África Vidal Claramonte, 2022-09-19. This book sheds light on the translations of renowned semiotician, essayist, and author Ilan Stavans, elucidating the ways in which they exemplify the migrant experience and translation as the interactions of living and writing in intercultural and interlinguistic spaces. While much has been written on Stavans' work as a writer, there has been little to date on his work as a translator subversive in their translations of Western classics such as Don Quixote and Hamlet into Spanglish. In Stavans' experiences as a writer and translator between languages and cultures, Vidal locates the ways in which writers and translators who have experienced migratory crises, marginalization, and exclusion adopt a hybrid, polydirectional, and multivocal approach to language, seen as a threat to the status quo. The volume highlights how the case of Ilan Stavans uncovers unique insights into how migrant writers' nonstandard use of language creates worlds predicated on deterritorialization and in between spaces which more accurately reflect the nuances of the lived experiences of migrants
