The Violet Hour Katherine Hill,2014-02-06 For a moment that afternoon it was only woman and water the Bay in all its sickening glory squaring itself for a fight Life hasn't always been perfect but for Abe and Cassandra Green an afternoon on the San Francisco Bay might be as good as it gets He's a doctor piloting his new sailing boat She's a sculptor finally getting a bit of recognition Their beautiful daughter Elizabeth is off to Harvard at the end of the summer But then there is a terrible row Cassandra has been unfaithful In a fit of insanity Abe throws himself off the boat A love story that begins with the end of a marriage The Violet Hour follows a twenty first century American family through past and present from a lavish New York wedding to the family funeral home in suburban Washington from a drunken PTA party to a scene of unexpected public violence In this resonant odyssey of youth middle age ambition and loss intimacy is fragile and the search for gratification breeds destruction Here is a family ripped apart by individual desires And here is a family possibly reborn

The Violet Hour Katie Roiphe, 2016-03-08 From one of our most perceptive and provocative voices comes a deeply researched account of the last days of Susan Sontag Sigmund Freud John Updike Dylan Thomas Maurice Sendak and James Salter an arresting and wholly original meditation on mortality In The Violet Hour Katie Roiphe takes an unexpected and liberating approach to the most unavoidable of subjects She investigates the last days of six great thinkers writers and artists as they come to terms with the reality of approaching death or what T S Eliot called the evening hour that strives Homeward and brings the sailor home from sea Roiphe draws on her own extraordinary research and access to the family friends and caretakers of her subjects Here is Susan Sontag the consummate public intellectual who finds her commitment to rational thinking tested during her third bout with cancer Roiphe takes us to the hospital room where after receiving the worst possible diagnosis seventy six year old John Updike begins writing a poem She vividly re creates the fortnight of almost suicidal excess that culminated in Dylan Thomas's fatal collapse at the Chelsea Hotel She gives us a bracing portrait of Sigmund Freud fleeing Nazi occupied Vienna only to continue in his London exile the compulsive cigar smoking that he knows will hasten his decline And she shows us how Maurice Sendak's beloved books for children are infused with his lifelong obsession with death if you know where to look The Violet Hour is a book filled with intimate and surprising revelations In the final acts of each of these creative geniuses are examples of courage passion self delusion pointless suffering and superb devotion There are also moments of sublime insight and understanding where the mind creates its own comfort As the author writes If it's nearly impossible to capture the approach of death in words who would have the most hope of doing it By bringing these great writers final days to urgent unsentimental life Katie Roiphe helps us to look boldly in the face of death and be less afraid Praise for The Violet Hour A beautiful book The intensity of these passages the depth of research the acute sensitivity for declarative moments is deeply beguiling The New York Times Book Review Profound poetic and yes comforting People Unconventional engaging The Violet Hour is at once scholarly literary juicy and unabashedly personal Los Angeles Times Enveloping I read it in bed at the kitchen table while walking down the street What normal person wants to blunder into this hushed and sacred space she asks But the answer is all of us and Ms Roiphe does it with grace Jennifer Senior The New York Times A beautiful and provocative meditation on mortality Minneapolis Star Tribune A tender yet penetrating look at the final days Roiphe has always seemed to me a writer to envy No matter what the occasion she can be counted on to marry ferocity and erudition in ways that nearly always make her interesting The Wall Street Journal Here is a critic in supreme control of her gifts whose gift to us is the observant vigor that refuses to flinch before the Reaper She knows that true criticism does not bother with the mollification of delicate sensibilities only with the intellect as it roils and rollicks through language William Giraldi The New Republic The Violet Hour Richard Montanari,2010 A priest dies of a heroin overdose following an apparent tryst with a call girl A freelance journalist follows the case into the twisted terrifying mind of a psychopath Meanwhile in an affluent suburb a world away a cryptic threat written in a great poet s words appears on a woman s computer screen reminding her of a 20 year old horrible incident at a Halloween party The Violet Hour Emani M Hardaway,2025-08-14 There are places in the city that are not listed on maps Whispers of something in Society People who disappear doors that only open if you already know what s behind them Elara Voss never believed in any of it until she was dragged into a world unlike her own Her old cases haunt her as not every thread has a knot at the end Behind a velvet mask and whispered traditions power is currency and Elara finds herself playing a game where the stakes are her life Some societies are built to protect This one was built to watch the world burn The Violet Hour Daniel Judson,2009-10-13 In Daniel Judson s powerful new thriller Bridgehampton auto mechanic Caleb Rakowski gets paid under the table at his friend Eric Carver s auto repair shop and lives in an apartment above He s good at his job he s a hard worker and he s making a decent living But right now he s sheltering a pregnant friend who ll do anything to keep her abusive husband away from herself and her baby Cal has sworn to protect her that s the kind of guy he is a true friend Little does he know though the trouble destined to come down on them over the course of three days Mischief Night Halloween and the Day of the Dead when he learns the truth about Eric Carver and what he s been hiding all these years And little does Cal know how those lies will force him to risk everything to save the people closest to him Daniel Judson is a craftsman of modern noir an incredibly talented writer in the vein of Ellroy or Chandler but with the Hamptons in all their glitz and stark shadows as his canvas Like his two previous Hamptons novels The Water s Edge and The Darkest Place The Violet Hour is tightly drawn hauntingly atmospheric and completely searing The Design of The Waste Land Burton Blistein,2008 The Design of The Waste Land offers a detailed comprehensive explanation of T S Eliot s enigmatic poem It relates The Waste Land to earlier and later poems by Eliot demonstrating that the major poems describe a continuous spiritual odyssey or quest undertaken by the same individual initiated by the moment of ecstasy in the Hyacinth garden Blistein s analysis of Eliot s sources reveals that the protagonist s glimpse of the heart of light is equivalent to drinking from the Grail or communing with

God The incarnate deity momentarily transforms the Hyacinth garden into the likeness of the Edenic paradise With the inevitable passing of the moment of communion the protagonist in effect is expelled from the paradisiacal garden as mankind was from Eden By contrast the familiar world appears to him a wasteland The protagonist seeks to drink again from the divine Source and return again to the garden as it was when transfigured by the divine presence His is a quest for grail and homeland BOOK JACKET
