The Voice Of The African Child:

The status of the implementation of the African Children's Charter: A ten-country study Elvis Fokala, Nkatha Murungi, Mai Aman, 2022-06-01 In 2020 the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child ACRWC celebrates 30 years since its adoption To date 50 African States have ratified the ACRWC and 28 have submitted the initial report 12 have submitted both initial and periodic reports to the African Committee of Experts on the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child ACERWC on the implementation of the ACRWC and have received recommendations from the ACERWC To ascertain the extent of children's rights protection in Africa the Centre for Human Rights was commissioned to undertake a study on the implementation of the ACRWC in 10 countries namely Algeria Burkina Faso Burundi Cameroon Ethiopia Ghana Mozambique Namibia Sudan and Tanzania In country researchers were engaged to collect data using desk based research to obtain information consisting of literature documents and online sources that was then thematically analysed The African Child Asuzu Agwunobi, 2016-07-28 The African Child author tells it as it happened from the harrowing childhood experience to the ups and downs of his adulthood in the African capital cities and the rural typical village The interesting mix of hard work and faith in God's Providence makes for an exhilarating reading that challenges African policy makers The authors critical assessment of the Nigerian crisis in the mid sixties soon after Independence as he places blame on both sides of the conflict depicts the writer's sense of impartiality to be encouraged by political leaders particularly in Africa This book examines thoughtfully the various stages in human development and finds no excuse in the down trodden level of the black man from his native land in Africa to his imposed second home anywhere particularly in the United States In the closing chapters the book exposes the hardship the loss of human dignity and personal exploitation of all black people from the days of the slave trade till today The book challenges the conscience of world leaders and calls for Reparation for slavery and colonialism Besides the author seeks to inculcate the spirit of self respect in all African people maintaining that self respect is the smoothening oil for human dignity while chastising all races of mankind to judge a person not by the color of his skin but by the content of his character as Dr Martin Luther King Jr admonished This is a must read for all civil rights activists college young students and world leaders and politicians Asuzu Agwunobi The African Child's Dream Rachel Adekunle, 2020-10-29 An innovative book from a different perspective to the run of the mill self help books that basically goes into the deep waters of the struggles and challenges that stand in the path of the young child aspiring to a dream and it cuts across the role of the parent in a participatory as well as spiritual level to ensure that the role of every party is specified A book that uses the story telling approach to show the path to achieving dreams with the roles of the parent and ward and inclusive of nuggets for those living in a dream not of their own choosing A book for anyone who wants to live a full and rich life doing what they love and needing the tools to equip themselves Unmasking Kelvin Kagimbi Waweru, 2020-04-27 Growing up anywhere brings its share of problems but growing up in a continent such as Africa is a struggle beyond imagination for many residents Put yourself in the shoes of an African child or should I say feet because many children do not wear shoes Imagine growing up in a world where you lack the very basics in life food clean water medicine shelter safety a bed of your own Beyond that there are no toys no dolls and no soccer balls no sweets and treats at best a bed of reeds to sleep on School would be wonderful to attend but there is no money for school fees So you stay at home and wait for a miracle but for most there is none Life is simply survival and staying alive It would be amazing to learn how to read and write but it may never happen for some ordinary African child in fact there are not many in the family that Acquire the very basic education There are few ways out of the slum in which you live One is to get education join criminal gangs practice prostitution and at its worst get recruited to terror groups However that is not the way you learned in your church just up the path from your slum called Emanuel where they spoke of Holiness right living and faith in God to bring about a future with hope You have had a lot of hope prayed a lot but not seen the bright future In fact many of the African children do not live long to know what life had in store for them They succumb to illness calamities and hostility in the community Some are abandoned by their parents while others die in full watch of their parents who cannot do anything to stop the ordeal The big question would be did their parents choose to be poor Did they choose to live in drought invested regions which are unproductive Did they choose not to seek education Did they choose to bear children only for them to die or live a miserable life Well when you get to the depth of this book you will realize that you are only lucky that life did not serve you with the same fate It s sad that most people assume life is a bed of roses for everyone while it s totally a nightmare for many especially in poor African countries

Children and AIDS Margaret Lombe,Alex Ochumbo,2017-05-08 The disproportional loss of individuals to HIV AIDS in their most productive years raises concerns over the welfare of surviving members of affected families and communities One consequence of the rapid increase in adult mortality is the rise in the proportion of children who are orphaned Sub Saharan Africa accounts for about 90 percent of these Mainly due to the staggering toll of HIV AIDS research effort has focused on treatment and prevention Children have received attention primarily in relation to mother to child transmission and paediatric AIDS These issues are important and compelling but fail to capture the whole story the unprecedented surge in the number of children made vulnerable by HIV AIDS In this book we reflect on the plight of children classified as vulnerable review interventions implemented to improve their welfare and grapple with the concept of vulnerability as it relates to human rights and the African child

Gumal and Lina; or, the African Children. An instructive and entertaining history, designed chiefly for the use of young people. Translated from the French [of J. L. A. Dumas] by S. B. Moens Caspar Friedrich LOSSIUS,1817

Do African Children Have Rights? Stephen Nmerigini Achilihu,2010 The United Nations 1989 Convention on the Rights of the Child CRC constitutes a landmark in the development of international human rights law and reflects an historic turn in universal thinking about children and their rights Many children in Africa today face the future with a deep sense of uncertainty and foreboding Many have no hope of education and the issues of child trafficking sexual exploitation and child labour reflect a profound crisis of the family The current socio economic situation has radically changed the world views and the life expectations of the African child This book attempts to respond to some of the questions that could be asked to what extent have the provisions of the CRC been implemented in the national legislations of African States What effect have they had on children in Africa What mechanisms exist to prevent and sanction rights abusers Are children s rights in Africa reality or simply rhetoric

Schmidt,1989-06-26 As Otten and Schmidt note in their preface voice is a broad metaphor Thus the 41 essays in this collection provide varied approaches examining point of view focus selection of details tone and even illustrations as part of the narrative identity Eight genres including picture books fantasy realism and biography receive separate study in generally brief articles by writers and more substantial analyses by critics In her contribution Jill Paton Walsh describes contemporary criticism as an impenetrable thicket of technical terms In most cases the critics here avoid jargon They speak clearly offering practical criticism accessible to anyone seriously concerned about narrative technique in children s literature Choice Although children s literature is now a recognized branch of English and American literature much of the criticism of it has focused on teaching methodology history and basic exposition Since children s books are no less a part of the literary tradition than adult books there is room for new approaches to children s literature While the importance of the voice of the narrator is emerging in criticism of adult fiction poetry and nonfiction little has been written about this subject in children s literature Examining the voice of the narrator can identify hitherto unexplored and unrecognized aspects of children s literature The essays in this collection were contributed by noted authors and critics Their inquiry is divided into eight genres the illustrated book folk literature and myth fantasy realism poetry historical fiction biography and informational books and each genre is discussed in terms of the authorial voice and the critical voice Each of the essays works toward an understanding of how the voice of the narrator functions in a given work or in the larger corpus of an author s work The result is not only a greater understanding of how specific authors shape their material and how authors use voice for particular effects but also how the narrator differs functionally from one genre to the next This unique essay collection is particularly suited for use in children s literature courses Because the contributors are some of the most significant authors and critics in children s literature in English it should also be part of any academic library s holdings in the criticism of children s literature in particular and literary criticism in general The Christian Occupation of Africa ,1917 Foreign Affairs Edmund Dene Morel,Helena Maria Swanwick,1927
