Copyright and Piracy Lionel Bently,Jennifer Davis,Jane C. Ginsburg,2010-10-28 An understanding of the changing nature of the law and practice of copyright infringement is a task too big for lawyers alone it requires additional inputs from economists historians technologists sociologists cultural theorists and criminologists Where is the boundary to be drawn between illegal imitation and legal inspiration Would the answer be different for creators artists and experts from different disciplines or fields How have concepts of copyright infringement altered over time and how do such changes relate if at all to the cultural norms operating amongst creators in different fields With such an approach one might perhaps begin to address the vital and overarching question of whether strong copyright laws rigorously enforced impede rather than promote creativity And what can be done to avoid any such adverse consequences while maintaining the effectiveness of copyright as an incentive mechanism for those who need it Late Europeans and Melancholy Fiction at the Turn of the Millennium Ian Ellison,2022-04-01 This book is the first comparative study of novels by Patrick Modiano W G Sebald and Antonio Muñoz Molina Drawing on many literary figures movements and traditions from the Spanish Golden Age to German Romanticism to French philosophy via Jewish modernist literature Ian Ellison offers a fresh perspective on European fiction published around the turn of the millennium Reflecting on what makes European fiction European this book examines how certain novels understand themselves to be culturally and historically late expressing a melancholy awareness of how the past and present are irreconcilable Within this framework however it considers how backwards facing tradition oriented self consciousness burdened by a sense of exhaustion in European culture and the violence of its past may yet suggest the potential for re enchantment in the face of obsolescence Consuming Korean Tradition in Early and Late Modernity Laurel Kendall,2011 Papers from a conference held at the Center for Korean Studies University of Hawaii October 13 15 2006 Youth Culture in Late Modernity Johan Fornäs,Göran Bolin,1995 Literatuuropgave p 169 185 Met reg Topics include youth culture and subculture and their relation to popular and high culture youth the media and moral panics and youth and literary texts
