The background of the book cover features a dramatic illustration of a nuclear mushroom cloud. A large, billowing cloud of white and yellow smoke rises from a dark, silhouetted horizon. The sky is a deep, dark blue with wispy, lighter blue clouds. Several smaller, fainter mushroom clouds are visible in the distance, suggesting a widespread nuclear conflict. The overall tone is somber and apocalyptic.

The Whiteman Scenario:

The Whiteman Scenario Steve McCurdy, 2011-05-01 On the eve of the Nixon resignation the Soviet Union takes an action that elevates the Strategic Air Command and the North American Air Defense Command to just short of full combat alert status Under normal circumstances there would be a direct escalation of responses on both sides that could take us to the brink of nuclear launch On this evening though there is an uncharacteristic hesitation on the part of normally hawkish US leadership Through riveting narrative the story shows that the hesitation was a reluctance to break an iron clad do not disturb order from the President A reluctance based in the fear that the event MUST have a rational explanation an explanation that will vanish in a conflagration of nuclear exchanges if Nixon in his depressed and panicked state interprets the event as an attack and a way out of the Watergate debacle The actions of an observant off duty missile launch officer cause the Joint Chiefs and SAC commanders to back down from an immanent launch The story is based on a real event and documented evidence that during the Yom Kippur war it was Kissinger and not Nixon who handled elevation in DefCon and preparedness Nixon it is reported told Kissinger to handle it Im dying Theyre trying to kill me This was in reference to the Watergate press feeding frenzy that had pushed Nixon to the point of emotional collapse The Secret Service agent on duty was ordered to lock the door from Nixons Camp David office to the swimming pool for fear he might try to drown himself The story compresses a series of many such actual events into the evening before the resignation
