Stephen Crane

The Vicomte De Bragelonne Oxford Worlds Classics:

The Princess and Other Stories Anton Pavlovich Chekhov, 1999 A practising doctor Chekhov was an acute observer of Russian society's moral as well as physical sickness. Joining The Russian Master Ward Number Six and A Woman's Kingdom in the World's Classics series, this collection including The Party After the Theatre and A Case History again poses his recurrent literary quandary of whether to moralize hoping to reform these ailments or simply to entertain. The solution is to be found in the stories themselves which like his plays offer no easy answers but pinpoint the anguish, tedium or downright evil of his characters with an irony that makes them both poignant and truthful.

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer Mark Twain, 1998 The adventures of a mischievous young boy and his friends growing up in a Mississippi River town in the nineteenth century.

The Red Badge of Courage and Other Stories Stephen Crane, 1998-09-10 The Red Badge of Courage 1895 is a vivid psychological account of a young man's experience of fighting in the American Civil War based on Crane's reading of popular descriptions of battle. The other stories collected in this volume draw on Crane's subsequent experience of war reporting and include The Open Boat, The Monster and The Blue Hotel. This edition is the most generously annotated available of Crane's work focusing on his place as an experimental writer, his modernist legacy and his social as well as literary revisionism.

The Red Badge of Courage 1895 is a vivid psychological account of a young man's experience of fighting in the American Civil War based on Crane's reading of popular descriptions of battle. The intensity of its narrative and its naturalistic power earned Crane instant success and led to his spending most of his brief remaining life war reporting. The other stories collected in this volume draw on this experience. The Open Boat 1898 was inspired by his fifty-hour struggle with waves after his ship was sunk during an expedition to Cuba. The Monster 1899 is a bitterly ironic commentary on the ostracization of a doctor for harbouring the servant who was disfigured and lost his sanity rescuing his son. As a rare example of Crane working in a vein of American Gothic it is particularly striking for its treatment of race and social injustice. The Blue Hotel traces the events that lead to a murder at a bar in a small Nebraska town. This edition is the most generously annotated edition of Crane's work exploring it from a fresh critical perspective and focusing on his place as an experimental writer, his modernist legacy and his social as well as literary revisionism.

The Golden Pot and Other Tales Ernst Theodor Amadeus Hoffmann, 2000 This is a new translation of five of Hoffmann's most celebrated tales: The Golden Pot, The Sandman, Princess Brambilla, Master Flea and My Cousin's Corner Window. The detailed introduction places the stories in their intellectual and historical context and explores their compelling narrative complexities.

Tales of the Elders of Ireland Harry Roe, Ann Dooley, 1999 Tales of the Elders of Ireland is the first complete translation of the late Middle Irish Acallam na Sen-rach, the largest literary text surviving from twelfth-century Ireland. It contains the earliest and most comprehensive collection of Fenian stories and poetry intermingling the contemporary Christian world of Saint Patrick with his scribes, clerics, occasional angels and souls rescued from Hell, the earlier pagan world of the ancient giant Fenians and Irish kings and the parallel timeless Otherworld peopled by ever young shape shifting fairies This readable lucid new translation is based on existing manuscript sources and is richly annotated complete with an Introduction discussing the place of the Acallamin Irish tradition and the impact of the Fenian or Ossianic tradition on English and European literature About the Series For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the broadest spectrum of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities voluminous notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

The Prairie James Fenimore Cooper, 1999 Set in the immense landscape of the Great Plains The Prairie 1827 addresses many questions raised by the penetration of the American west the displacement of the Indians the destruction of nature and the creation of a just society both ordered and free Natty Bumppo a man now in the autumn of his days is the spokesman for the conservation of the natural environment But as his physical prowess wanes he is ultimately unable to thwart the despoilers In this the last in the series of five Leatherstocking Tales Cooper resolves the issues of The Pioneers and The Last of the Mohicans but at the same time eloquently suggests that humility self control reverence for God and respect for nature are tragically lost on the prairie The Literary World, 1915 Louise de la Valliere Alexandre Dumas, 2021-01-15 Louise De La Valliere Oxford World's Classics Louise de la Balliere is the middle section of The Vicomte de Bragelonne or Ten Years After Against a tender love story Dumas continues the suspense which began with The Vicomte de Bragelonne and will end with The Man in the Iron Mask Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction 2007, 2008-02

The Vicomte de Bragelonne (Volume 2 of 2) (EasyRead Large Edition) Alexandre Dumas, 2004 Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1998-04 The Crimes of Love Marquis de Sade, 2008-06-12 Murder seduction and incest are among the cruel rewards for selfless love in Sade's stories tragedy despair and death the inevitable outcome In this text Sade asks questions about society about ourselves and about life for which we have yet to find the answers Provided by publisher

The Confessions of an English Opium-Eater Thomas De Quincey, 2008-11-13 Determined to counter the lies about opium that had been told by travellers to the Orient and the medical profession De Quincey describes his addiction the consciousness altering properties of the drugs its pleasures and its pains Guide to Reprints, 2009 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1998 The Misfortunes of Virtue and Other Early Tales Marquis de Sade, 2008-05-08 The name of the Marquis de Sade is synonymous with the blackest corners of the human soul a byword for all that is foulest in human conduct In his bleak claustrophobic universe there is no God no morality no human affection and no hope Power is given to the strong and the strong are murderers torturers and tyrants No quarter is given compassion is the virtue of the weak Yet Sade was a man of savage intelligence who carried the philosophy of the French Enlightenment to its logical extreme His writings effectively release the individual from all social and moral constraint for many Sade is the Great Libertarian The Victorians considered him Divine and Apollinaire called him the freest spirit the Surrealists recognised him as a founding father and he is a key figure in the history of modernism and post modernism With Freud and Marx Sade has been one of the crucial shaping influences on this century and reactions to him continue to be extreme But he has always been more talked about than read This selection of his early writings some making their first appearance in this new translation reveals the full range of Sade s sobering moods and considerable talents ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World s Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford s commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Catalog of Reprints in Series Robert Merritt Orton,1958 Catalog of Reprints in Series ,1958
