The Vocation Lectures Hackett Classics:

The Vocation Lectures Max Weber, 2004-03-15 Originally published separately Weber's Science as a Vocation and Politics as a Vocation stand as the classic formulations of his positions on two related subjects that go to the heart of his thought the nature and status of science and its claims to authority and the nature and status of political claims and the ultimate justification for such claims Together in this volume these newly translated lectures offer an ideal point of entry into Weber's central project understanding how as Weber put it in the West alone there have appeared cultural manifestations that seem to go in the direction of universal significance and validity The Interest in Disinterestedness Pierre Bourdieu, 2024-07-04

A key feature of those who work for the state in the legal system and in public services is that they claim to be putting their own personal interests aside and working in a disinterested fashion for the public good But is disinterested behaviour possible Can law be treated as a set of universal rules that are independent of particular interests or is this mere ideology Is the state bureaucracy a universal class as Hegel thought or a structure that serves the interests of the dominant class as Marx claimed In his lecture courses at the Collège de France in 1987-88 and 1988-89 Pierre Bourdieu addressed these questions by examining the formation of the legal and bureaucratic fields characteristic of the modern state uncovering the historical and social conditions that enable a social group to form and find its own interests in the very fact of serving interests that go beyond it For a disinterested universe to emerge it needs both the invention of a public service or a spirit of service to the public cause and the creation of a social universe in which individuals can pursue a career devoted to public service and be rewarded for it In other words it requires a process of specialization whereby autonomous specific fields become established in the social cosmos within which a special kind of game that follows the rules of disinterest can be played out By reconstructing the conditions under which an interest in disinterestedness emerged Bourdieu sheds new light on the formation of the modern state and legal system and provides a fresh perspective on the many professions in modern societies that are oriented towards the service of the common good Political Entrepreneurship Josef Lentsch, 2018-11-20

This book demonstrates how political entrepreneurs entrepreneurially minded citizens who launch innovative political start-ups can drive political change Building on unique insights rich examples and personal stories of centrist political entrepreneurs distilled from 40 in-depth interviews the author guides readers through key stages of political entrepreneurship and shows how to master them By equally highlighting successes and failures the book reveals how political entrepreneurs actually go about producing transformative political change In light of the populist challenge and the decline of traditional political parties the book also offers an entertaining backstage view and first-hand insights into the successes of En Marche in France Ciudadanos in Spain NEOS in Austria and other centrist political startups It provides practical advice on how to learn from and replicate their successes Political practitioners and other politically interested readers will find a useful theory of Political Entrepreneurship what it is how it works and what its role is in 21st century democracies Most of all they will find essential reproducible tools and methods You have read a lot about startups in business but if you want to know how Silicon Valley style startups look in politics read this Its author is not only writing about political entrepreneurs he is one of them Ivan Krastev Chairman of the Centre for Liberal Strategies in Sofia and permanent Fellow at the Institute of Human Sciences in Vienna No one understands better what it takes to take a political start up from ideation to the parliament than Josef Lentsch In Political Entrepreneurship he combines first hand experience with a thoughtful review of what we know about entrepreneurship in the interest of society Johanna Mair Professor of Organization Strategy and Leadership at the Hertie School of Governance and Co Director Global Innovation for Impact Lab at Stanford University Josef Lentsch has produced a fascinating commanding guide to the new insurgent players shaking up traditional party systems and reinvigorating liberal politics Political Entrepreneurship is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand today s fragmented and disrupted European politics and the European politics of the future Jeremy Cliffe Charlemagne columnist The Economist The rarest of events has occurred a new political species has appeared in the European eco system the centrist political start up From Macron s En Marche in France to Spain s Ciudadanos a new type of political actor has emerged Few are better positioned to tell this Europe wide story than Josef Lentsch who has had a front seat view on this important political transformation that is shaking Europe A dramatic and important account Daniel Ziblatt Eaton Professor of Government Harvard University and co author of How Democracies Die

Climate Change and the Future of Democracy R. S. Deese, 2018-09-10 This book will survey past and present efforts to democratize international institutions and will advance the argument that a new degree of transparency and accountability on a global scale is necessary to address the threat of climate change The volume will analyse how global governance could become more democratic and consequently more responsive to the challenge of climate change As economic globalization has accelerated since 1945 international institutions have done a remarkable job in facilitating global communication and commerce but have been far less effective in protecting the global commons
