

The Mayflower

On September 16th, 1620, a hundred men, between protestant separatists and adventurers, departed from England to the New World with the intention of founding a new colony. The so-called Pilgrims arrived to America 66 days later.

"The Pilgrim ship"

Even though there are no registries that describe the features of this ship, its reconstruction/imitation is not taking into consideration its most characteristic shape of similar keel that called the use of the end of the 16th century.
