that does indicate a high degree of the public's interest in some concept of reality. As for mystery it seems we are approaching an age where there will be the death of mystery and we will have only reality. Hickey believes this is because the vast majority of the populace doesn't view reality in the context of mystery. They imagine mystery to be something which is just obscure or ambiguous which given enough time will be solved by reason and logic and become reality. Hickey's goal is that Get Real will give the reader a fresh understanding of both reality and mystery as seen from a theological and philosophical viewpoint. Ultimately he intends the reader to move beyond the perceived duality in order to establish that mystery is truly the home of all reality. Knowledge of the Self-Revealing God in the Thought of Thomas Forsyth Torrance John Douglas Morrison, 2005-02-07 This work examines Thomas Forsyth Torrance's concern for the modern re-entrenchment of dualism as it has negatively affected the Christian faith and the realist knowledge of God in Christ. Additionally an analysis is made of Torrance's program to faithfully restore theological thinking, theological science and true objectivity out of the Christocentric Trinitarian self-disclosure of God via the modern return to critical realist epistemology in the physical sciences e.g. Einstein, Polanyi. The study concludes with a critical examination of the adequacy and completeness of Torrance's endeavor the problem of residual dualism in the light of his own theological and redemptive concerns.

The Cat, the Watch, and the Word David Ivey, 2008-02 Ivey offers a Bible study guide that allows readers to test whether what they've been taught is truly in the Scriptures Christian. The rule of faith and the doctrine of inspiration. The Carey lects. for 1884 Robert Watts, 1885 The Spirit of Truth as Revealed in Law ... John Coutts, 1902 God with Us Christoph Barth, 1991-04-30

This is a print on demand book and is therefore non-returnable. God's dynamic initiative is the main theme of biblical testimony says Christoph Barth. Here he expounds the message of the Old Testament in a manner that is faithful to the Old Testament itself as an account of the mighty acts of God rather than a series of abstract doctrines. A theology of the Old Testament is not simply a study of God however Old Testament theology also encompasses teaching about the world and humanity about life and death, about origin, nature and destiny. And Old Testament theology must also take into account the New Testament which confirms what is announced in Israel's Scripture and thus is part of it. Barth elucidates the importance of the Old Testament for the New Testament and hence for Christians surveys God's redemptive acts as recorded in the confessional summaries of history in the Old and New Testaments and offers contemporary applications of these biblical themes. Working his way through the Old Testament Barth treats nine key topics each of which deals with one of the divine acts that are the essential subject matter of Israel's Scripture: creation, election of the patriarchs, exodus, wilderness wandering, Sinai revelation, gift of Canaan, election of David, kingship, election of Jerusalem and sending of prophets. He has divided each of the nine chapters into sections on one main aspect of the topic considering theological, anthropological, soteriological and eschatological points as well. Throughout his examination of each theme Barth pays special attention to its scriptural context. God With Us is an excellent textbook for introductory or survey courses in the Old Testament. Each section begins with a thesis statement summarizing its contents and details are treated in small print sections Barth originally wrote his Old Testament theology in Indonesian and later rewrote the entire book in English Geoffrey Bromiley has condensed the original four volumes in this edition    The Love of God Revealed through Jesus, The Only Begotten Son (III) Rev.
