Something in the Air Marc Fisher, 2007 Along with rock and roll music came the attitude that would change the voice of radio forever via the likes of raconteur Jean Shepherd who captivated his loyal following of Night People the inimitable Bob Fass whose groundbreaking Radio Unnameable inaugurated the anything goes free form style that would define the alternative frontier of FM and a small time Top 40 deejay who would ultimately find national fame as a political talk show host named Rush Limbaugh

World Literacy John W. Miller, Michael C. McKenna, 2016-01-29 International literacy assessments have provided ample data for ranking nations charting growth and casting blame Summarizing the findings of these assessments which afford a useful vantage from which to view world literacy as it evolves this book examines literate behavior worldwide in terms of both the ability of populations from a wide variety of nations to read and the practice of literate behavior in those nations Drawing on The World's Most Literate Nations author Jack Miller's internationally released study emerging trends in world literacy and their relationships to political economic and social factors are explored Literacy and in particular the practice of literate behaviors is used as a lens through which to view countries economic development gender equality resource utilization and ethnic discrimination Above all this book is about trajectories It begins with historical contexts described in terms of support for literate cultures Based on a variety of data sources these trends are traced to the present and then projected ahead The literate futures of nations are discussed and how these relate to their economic and sociocultural development This book is unique in providing a broader perspective on an intractable problem a vantage point that offers useful insights to inform policy and in bringing together an array of relevant data sources not typically associated with literacy status
