The Victims of Democracy Eugene Victor Wolfenstein, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1981 The Victims of Democracy Eugene Victor Wolfenstein, 1993-02-26 This unique psychobiographical study integrates a wide and subtle view of the history of white racism and the black liberation movement with a deep and sensitive understanding of the inner world of Malcolm X Eugene Victor Wolfenstein is a critical social theorist and a practicing psychoanalyst who argues that racism must be analyzed within a personal as well as a political context Drawing from The Autobiography of Malcolm X Malcolm's published speeches and a variety of historical materials Wolfenstein interweaves Marxist and psychoanalytic concepts to examine the evolution of Malcolm's consciousness from his youth through his successive incarnations as hustler prisoner black Muslim minister and African American revolutionary Exploring the complex interplay of politics economics and the human psyche this powerful work of critical social theory interprets the life history of Malcolm X and provides a cogent historical analysis of the black liberation movement in the United States The debate on black civil rights in America Kevern Verney, 2024-01-16 This book examines the historiography of the African American freedom struggle from the 1890s to the present It considers how and why the study of African American history developed from being a marginalized subject in American universities and colleges at the start of the twentieth century to become one of the most extensively researched fields in American history today There is analysis of the changing scholarly interpretations of African American leaders from Booker T Washington through to Barack Obama The impact and significance of the leading civil rights organizations are assessed as well as the white segregationists who opposed them and the civil rights policies of presidential administrations from Woodrow Wilson to Donald Trump The civil rights struggle is also discussed in the context of wider political social and economic changes in the United States and developments in popular culture The Struggle for Black Equality Harvard Sitkoff, 2008-09-30 The Struggle for Black Equality is a dramatic memorable history of the civil rights movement Harvard Sitkoff offers both a brilliant interpretation of the personalities and dynamics of civil rights organizations and a compelling analysis of the continuing problems plaguing many African Americans With a new foreword and afterword and an up to date bibliography this anniversary edition highlights the continuing significance of the movement for black equality and justice The Handbook of Research on Black Males Theodore S. Ransaw, C.P. Gause, Richard Majors, 2018-11-01 Drawing from the work of top researchers in various fields The Handbook of Research on Black Males explores the nuanced and multifaceted phenomena known as the black male Simultaneously hyper visible and invisible black males around the globe are being investigated now more than ever before however many of the well meaning responses regarding media attention paid to black males are not well informed by research Additionally not all black males are the same and each of them have varying strengths and challenges making one size fits all perspectives unproductive This text which acts as a comprehensive tool that can serve as a resource to articulate and argue for policy change suggest educational improvements and advocate judicial reform fills a large void The contributors from multidisciplinary backgrounds focus on history research trends health education criminal and social justice hip hop and programs and initiatives This volume has the potential to influence the field of research on black males as well as improve lives for a population that is often the most celebrated in the media and simultaneously the least socially valued

Islam in Black America Edward E. Curtis IV, 2012-02-01 Many of the most prominent figures in African American Islam have been dismissed as Muslim heretics and cultists Focusing on the works of five of these notable figures Edward W Blyden Noble Drew Ali Elijah Muhammad Malcolm X and Wallace D Muhammad author Edward E Curtis IV examines the origin and development of modern African American Islamic thought Curtis notes that intellectual tensions in African American Islam parallel those of Islam throughout its history most notably whether Islam is a religion for a particular group of people or whether it is a religion for all people In the African American context such tensions reflect the struggle for black liberation and the continuing reconstruction of black identity Ultimately Curtis argues the interplay of particular and universal interpretations of the faith can allow African American Islam a vision that embraces both a specific group of people and all people

Alex Haley and Malcolm X's The Autobiography of Malcolm X Harold Bloom, 1999 Bloom's Reviews are a acclaimed advancement to the standard chapter by chapter plot summaries provided by most study guides Each Review saves a student time by presenting the latest research from noted literary scholars in a practical and lucid format enabling students to concentrate on improving their knowledge and understanding of the work in question

American Studies Janice A. Radway, Kevin Gaines, Barry Shank, Penny Von Eschen, 2009-03-09 American Studies is a vigorous bold account of the changes in the field of American Studies over the last thirty five years Through this set of carefully selected key essays by an editorial board of expert scholars the book demonstrates how changes in the field have produced new genealogies that tell different histories of both America and the study of America Charts the evolution of American Studies from the end of World War II to the present day by showcasing the best scholarship in this field An introductory essay by the distinguished editorial board highlights developments in the field and places each essay in its historical and theoretical context Explores topics such as American politics history culture race gender and working life Shows how changing perspectives have enabled older concepts to emerge in a different context

Malcolm X Robert Terrill, 2004 Prior to this text little has been done to analyze Malcolm X's speeches Author Robert Terrill explores the key texts from the African American protest those delivered while he was a minister for the Nation of Islam and afterwards This volume shows that the changing potential of Malcolm's rhetoric lies in part in its iconoclastic refusal to be constrained by definitive boundaries

The Malcolm X Encyclopedia Robert L. Jenkins, Mfanya Donald

Tryman,2002 Using the Nation of Islam as a vehicle but largely through his own dedication energy and intelligence Malcolm X became an indefatigable Black leader during the 1960s This encyclopedic volume examines one of the most controversial and heroic leaders of the 20th century Over 500 essays discuss how Malcolm X affected the world in which he lived and how the influence of people issues and events shaped his development as an international figure With more than 70 contributors from black studies history political science sociology philosophy education journalism and psychology the encyclopedia combines the knowledge of a precise group of writers Addressing a major social religious and political figure through their own disciplines these authors flesh out both the diversity and the complexity of the world that defined Malcolm X

Paradigms in Black Studies Abdul Alkalimat,1990 American History Alan Brinkley,1999 Race and the Subject of Masculinities Harry Stecopoulos,Michael Uebel,1997 Although in recent years scholars have explored the cultural construction of masculinity they have largely ignored the ways in which masculinity intersects with other categories of identity particularly those of race and ethnicity The essays in Race and the Subject of Masculinities address this concern and focus on the social construction of masculinity black white ethnic gay and straight in terms of the often complex and dynamic relationships among these inseparable categories Discussing a wide range of subjects including the inherent homoeroticism of martial arts cinema the relationship between working class ideologies and Elvis impersonators the emergence of a gay black masculine aesthetic in the works of James Van der Zee and Robert Mapplethorpe and the comedy of Richard Pryor Race and the Subject of Masculinities provides a variety of opportunities for thinking about how race sexuality and manhood are reinforced and reconstituted in today s society Editors Harry Stecopoulos and Michael Uebel have gathered together essays that make clear how the formation of masculine identity is never as obvious as it might seem to be Examining personas as varied as Eddie Murphy Bruce Lee Tarzan Malcolm X and Andre Gide these essays draw on feminist critique and queer theory to demonstrate how cross identification through performance and spectatorship among men of different races and cultural backgrounds has served to redefine masculinity in contemporary culture By taking seriously the role of race in the making of men Race and the Subject of Masculinities offers an important challenge to the new studies of masculinity Contributors Herman Beavers Jonathan Dollimore Richard Dyer Robin D G Kelly Christopher Looby Leerom Medovoi Eric Lott Deborah E McDowell Jos E Mu oz Harry Stecopoulos Yvonne Tasker Michael Uebel Gayle Wald Robyn Wiegman

Yoruba Wisdom Edward Michael Pavlic,1991 African-American Political Psychology Tasha S. Philpot,Ismail K. White,2010-10-15 Decades of research in both political science and psychology have demonstrated that external environmental factors influence individuals mental processes especially as they relate to politics Inasmuch as such factors vary systematically across racial and ethnic groups the political psychology of these groups warrants study hence the objective of this volume We have assembled a number of papers from both psychologists and political scientists in an effort to combine both disciplines understanding of the psychological underpinnings of Blacks orientation to the political world Our goal is to take lessons learned from previous research and incorporate them into new theories and utilize new data sources in an effort to create a unified study of Black political psychology In the Name of Law Robert Ray Betts, 2008 Ebony, 1980-11 The Journal of Pan African Studies, 1998 Dudley Randall, Broadside Press, and the Black Arts Movement in Detroit, 1960-1995 Julius Eric Thompson, 1999 In 1965 Dudley F Randall founded the Broadside Press a company devoted to publishing distributing and promoting the works of black poets and writers In so doing he became a major player in the civil rights movement Hundreds of black writers were given an outlet for their work and for their calls for equality and black identity Though Broadside was established on a minimal budget Randalls unique skills made the press successful He was trained as a librarian and had spent decades studying and writing poetry most importantly Randall was totally committed to the advancement of black literature The famous and relatively unknown sought out Broadside including such writers as Gwendolyn Brooks Margaret Walker Mae Jackson Lance Jeffers Etheridge Knight Sonia Sanchez Nikki Giovanni Audre Lorde and Sterling D Plumpp His story is one of battling to promote black identity and equality through literature and thus lifting the cultural lives of all Americans Canadian Journal of Political and Social Theory, 1983
