Allegro molto ma Maestoso  $\text{♩} = 70$

I.

The musical score is written for Viola and Piano. The Viola part is on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The Piano part is on a grand staff with treble and bass clefs and the same key signature. The tempo is marked 'Allegro molto ma Maestoso' with a quarter note equal to 70 beats per minute. The score is divided into four systems. The first system shows the beginning of the piece, with the Viola playing a series of eighth notes and the Piano providing a harmonic accompaniment. The second system continues the Viola's melodic line, which is characterized by slurs and ties. The third and fourth systems show further development of the themes, with the Piano part becoming more active, featuring chords and moving lines. The score is written in a clear, professional style with standard musical notation.

Viola Concerto In C Minor Viola Or Piano:

Konzert für Viola und Orchester c-Moll Johann Christian Bach, 2022-04 Johann Christian Bach's Concerto in C minor has become one of the most popular viola repertory pieces. The piece is however not by J C Bach at all but rather a well intentioned fabrication of the Casadesus brothers. Henri and Marius. Henri Casadesus was an outstanding violist and presented this concerto in 1916 as a new discovery by J C Bach. It was subsequently revealed to be an invention of Casadesus himself inspired by J C Bach sources. This Edition Peters publication contains a piano reduction and offers the possibility of performance by viola cello or violin containing separate parts for these instruments. Viola Concerto in C Minor (Ed. for Viola [Violin/Cello] and Piano) [Incl. CD]: Reconstructed by Henri Casadesus; CD: Orchestral Acc., Book & CD, 2022-05. Attributed to Johann Christian Bach by Henri Casadesus who is widely believed to have composed the piece. This Concerto in C minor is presented with a piano reduction as well as a recorded orchestral accompaniment on CD. Concerto in C Minor Viola and Piano, 2021-07. String. Henri Casadesus was passionate about early instruments as we know from a number of photographs showing him with viola d'amore. The subject of a manual he wrote entitled Tecniq ue de la viole d'amour. The Concerto en Ut mineur was first published in 1947 by Mica Salabert. The first edition gives the so called original part for solo violoncello together with the score which according to the preface has been adapted for viola or cello or violin by Casadesus. However stylistic analysis of the piece together with some musicological research carried out after the appearance of the first edition reveals that the original version for violoncello on which the adaptation was supposed to be based cannot be attributed to Johann Christian Bach but is rather a work imitating his style written two centuries later. In spite of this Concerto en Ut mineur encountered considerable success and continues to be studied and performed by both violinists and cellists today.
