feature to mark World Soil Day Do you turn a packaged product around to get crucial information about it before making a purchase Or do you base your purchase simply on what is advertised in bold letters on the front On National Consumer Rights Day City Beat presents a ready reckoner and a list of Dos and Don ts Our CityZen for this edition is Rajlaxmi Chowdhury or Ria as she is known in the online reading community She talks about how she began what keeps her ticking and the latest trends in the world of Boostagram City Literature meanwhile takes a close look at romance in Odia writing The resurgence of styles from Y2K or year 2000 is the latest example of fashion repeating itself at regular intervals Our section on fashion and lifestyle brings you the low down on this highly visible revival City Sports celebrates the talent and perseverance of four young cricketers from Odisha who played a key role as India won the first ever Blind Women s T20 World Cup held in Sri Lanka

Influence of University Rankings on Institutions: Ethics, Controversies, and Competition

Kayyali, Mustafa,2025-10-16 The influence of university rankings on higher education institutions reveals ethical concerns controversies and increased global competition As rankings become a measure of academic prestige many universities align their strategies with ranking criteria sometimes at the expense of educational values This pursuit of higher rankings often drives institutions to invest in research output and international visibility while potentially neglecting teaching quality or community engagement Criticisms emerge over the transparency and fairness of ranking methodologies raising questions about their validity and the consequences they produce Further exploration into the ethical implications of rankings may reveal new contentious practices and competitive dynamics shaped by the prioritization of university rankings Influence of University Rankings on Institutions Ethics Controversies and Competition explores how the pursuit of higher university rankings influences institutional priorities behaviors and decision making processes It examines the ethical dilemmas methodological controversies and competitive pressures that arise from global ranking systems This book covers topics such as mental health teacher education and ethics and bias and is a useful resource for educators policymakers government officials psychologists academicians researchers and scientists

Wanting What's Best Sarah W. Jaffe,2022-05-24 When privileged parents say that they want what s best for their child they don t consciously add and not for other children Yet the practical effect of parents with privilege relentlessly pursuing their own child s interests is that other children are left behind Author Sarah W Jaffe interviewed dozens of parents who are resisting the cultural pressures to seek the best for only their kids while navigating some of the major decisions that parents make about childcare schools how they use their time and money and the legacy they hope to leave their kids These may not feel like political decisions but each either contributes to a system where only a few can thrive or takes a small step toward dismantling it Our children are watching and learning from how we make choices How we treat the people who care for them tells them how they should behave as a boss Where we send them to school teaches them about their place in the world How we spend our time and money sends them more powerful messages about how to spend theirs than any lecture about the importance of giving back or gratitude ever could

What does it look like to fight for other people's children as if the future of your own child depended on it What choices would you make Breaking Ranks Colin Diver,2022-04-12 Some colleges will do anything to improve their national ranking That can be bad for their students and for higher education Since U S News World Report first published a college ranking in 1983 the rankings industry has become a self appointed judge declaring winners and losers among America's colleges and universities In this revealing account Colin Diver shows how popular rankings have induced college applicants to focus solely on pedigree and prestige while tempting educators to sacrifice academic integrity for short term competitive advantage By forcing colleges into standardized best college hierarchies he argues rankings have threatened the institutional diversity intellectual rigor and social mobility that is the genius of American higher education As a former university administrator who refused to play the game Diver leads his readers on an engaging journey through the mysteries of college rankings admissions financial aid spending policies and academic practices He explains how most dominant college rankings perpetuate views of higher education as a purely consumer good susceptible to unidimensional measures of brand value and prestige Many rankings he asserts also undermine the moral authority of higher education by encouraging various forms of distorted behavior misrepresentation and outright cheating by ranked institutions The recent Varsity Blues admissions scandal for example happened in part because affluent parents wanted to get their children into elite schools by any means necessary Explaining what is most useful and important in evaluating colleges Diver offers both college applicants and educators a guide to pursuing their highest academic goals freed from the siren song of the best college illusion Ultimately he reveals how to break ranks with a rankings industry that misleads its consumers undermines academic values and perpetuates social inequality
