Art Coloring Book Denise McGill, 2019-02-03 This is a coloring book drawn from classic Renaissance art from Giotto to El Greco. The idea is that when you color famous art, you remember the names and faces better than if you were just trying to memorize art history. This is meant to be an educational tool and a fun one. Creating Art for All Ages Frances

Flicker, Jeanne Richins, Jacqueline G. Van Schooneveld, 2019-11-22 This is book two of a series of three books. The series takes students on an interdisciplinary cross-content journey entitled Creating Art Through the Ages. Each book provides experiences in language arts, social studies, math, and art as the students investigate ancient and modern civilizations. Discovery and Knowledge explores the ancient Roman civilization, the Middle Ages, and Renaissance. Explorers set sail to discover land, treasures, raw materials, and knowledge on behalf of their mother country and religion. The development of the printing press enabled the disbursement of knowledge through books. Discovery and the pursuit of knowledge is the underlying theme during this era. In this book, it is reimagined for students with experiences through stories, interactive role-playing activities, and art projects. Rich Kimball was once a good guy. He was a youth pastor, played drums in a Christian band, a member of the Jesus Freaks Christian Motorcycle Ministry, and often helped hurting people in the streets of Texas. Now released from his jail cell, he wandered the streets in a drug-induced fog, fighting back the horrible memories of turning his back on the church and his abuse to his sweet wife. She divorced him, and he abandoned all his friends. Could he ever go home again? Could he be a man of God after all he'd done? He didn't expect his friends to accept him back so easily. He also didn't expect to be living under the same roof as his ex-wife and her new giant Irish husband. This relationship-challenging story will make you wonder how far you would go with
