Contemporary Photography and Theory Sally Miller,2019-11-14 Exploring contemporary theory and practice in photography this textbook moves beyond introductory studies to cover more advanced concepts for the upper level student Building on a foundational understanding of photography it addresses recent theoretical debates and more complex ideas to enable students to acquire the tools and confidence to develop the independent thinking and analytical skills needed for this level of study Contemporary Photography and Theory analyses five key topics identity place the politics of looking psychoanalysis and the event Its conceptual approach encourages students to apply theoretical texts to a range of issues and themes both in their own work and that of others Each topic is broken down into three chapters to address the central concept in detail supported by the following features Troubleshooting footnotes to flag up and clarify common misunderstandings Detailed case studies to show how theoretical concepts can be applied to artists work Further examples and reading suggestions from an international range of photographers and thinkersThe chapters are designed to be a suitable length for assigned weekly readings making this the ideal resource for in class discussion as well as the perfect starting place for dissertation research

It's Not Personal Susan Best,2021-06-17 How does something as potent and evocative as the body become a relatively neutral artistic material From the 1960s much body art and performance conformed to the anti expressive ethos of minimalism and conceptualism whilst still using the compelling human form But how is this strange mismatch of vigour and impersonality able to transform the body into an expressive medium for visual art Focusing on renowned artists such as Lygia Clark Marina Abramovic and Angelica Mesiti Susan Best examines how bodies are configured in late modern and contemporary art She identifies three main ways in which they are used as material and argues that these formulations allow for the exposure of pressing social and psychological issues In skilfully aligning this new typology for body art and performance with critical theory she raises questions pertaining to gender inter subjectivity relation and community that continue to dominate both our artistic and cultural conversation
