Katharine Sarah Moody, 2016-03-03 The theological turn in continental philosophy and the turn to Paul in political philosophy have occasioned a return to radical theology a tradition whose philosophical heritage can be traced to the death of God announced in the work of Nietzsche and Hegel John D Caputo's deconstructive theology and Slavoj Zizek's materialist theology are two radical theologies that explore what it might mean to pass through the death of God and to abandon this experience as specifically Christian Radical Theology and Emerging Christianity demonstrates how these theologies are transforming everyday religious practices through an examination of the work of Peter Rollins and Kester Brewin two figures at the radical margins of a contemporary expression of Western religiosity called emerging Christianity The author uses her analysis of all four figures to argue that deconstructive practices can enable religious communities to become part of a wider materialist collective in which the death of God continues to resonate Pushing the methodological boundaries of philosophy of religion by examining religious practices as the site of philosophical signification the book challenges scholars and practitioners alike to a new and more demanding dialogue between theory and practice    The Emerging Church,

Religious and Theological Abstracts ,2002 The Emerging Church Dan Kimball,2009-08-30 Includes Samples and photos of emerging church worship gatherings Recommended resources for the emerging churchThe seeker sensitive movement revolutionized the way we did church and introduced countless baby boomers to Jesus Yet trends show that today s post Christian generations are not responding like the generations before them As we enter a new cultural era what do worship services look like that are connecting with the hearts of emerging generations How do preaching leadership evangelism spiritual formation and most of all how we even think of church need to change The Emerging Church goes beyond just theory and gets into very practical ways of assisting you in your local church circumstances There is no one right way no model for us all to emulate But there is something better Dan Kimball calls it Vintage Christianity a refreshing return to an unapologetically sacred raw historical and Jesus focused missional ministry Vintage Christianity connects with emerging post seeker generations who are very open spiritually but are not interested in church For pastors leaders and every concerned Christian Kimball offers a riveting and easy to grasp exploration of today's changing culture and gives insight into the new kind of churches that are emerging in its midst. Included is running commentary by Rick Warren, Brian McLaren, Howard Hendricks and others. New World, New Church? Hannah Steele, 2017-11-30. The emerging church movement has quickly become one of the fastest growing ecclesiological phenomena in the west today. But there is still a debate to be had about how the church understands its identity and purpose within postmodern culture. Offering an assessment of the impact of the emerging church upon the church in the West and examining the thinking of the movement's leading proponents including Brian McLaren and Rob Bell. New World New Church affirms what is good and insightful in the emerging church and offers a robust critical evaluation of its theological revisions. Table of Contents: 1. What is the Emerging Church? 2. The Emerging Church and Culture 3. The Emerging Church and Eschatology 4. The Emerging Church and Missiology 5. The Emerging Church and Ecclesiology 6. The Church of Tomorrow Bibliography. Church emerging from the cracks Johann-Albrecht Meylahn, 2013-01-01. The drawing Christ of the Breadlines by Fritz Eichenberg, 1953, probably says all that this book wants to say about being church. The church is a space in this world where heaven and earth reach out to each other. It is a space in the world but not of the world as it is touched by heaven. Christ is in the breadline yet one can recognise Him as He stands out in the breadline. One can recognise him because of the hallow that surrounds him. He is the incarnation within reality and through the incarnation the place within reality becomes holy not sacred as in separated but sanctified as differentiated offering an alternative within reality. He brings a space that is marked not by the darkness and the vicious cycles of the world which dominate and enslave creation such as poverty but a space that breaks into this darkness with light as it is hallowed in hope. What more can the church hope for than to be allowed to be a space of hallowed hope in the vicious systems of death in a postmodern and post-Christian world? This book would like to propose that it does not really matter if you start with theory, Scripture and tradition or with context and practice because theology is circular or spiral and therefore there is no starting point as the two continually influences each other or one could even say the one interprets the other. So for this book the best place to start is with where we are now the now of experience as this now of experience includes both theory and praxis. There is no such thing as experience pure and simple as experience is always interpreted experience and the interpretation is done through the theory that has shaped and formed us. Thus in this book we work with theory laden practice.
