Branding Books Across the Ages Helleke Braber,Jeroen

Dera,Jos Joosten,Maarten Steenmeijer,2025-10-01 For many literature and marketing are considered opposite phenomena. This book discusses cases in which the two are closely connected. It argues that literature is subject to the same mechanisms as other commercial products our experience of literary texts is prefigured by brands trademarks that identify a product and differentiate it from its competitors. From the early modern period onwards literary authors and their texts are constantly branded and have been both the object and the trailblazer of a complex marketing process. The authors of this volume analyze this branding process throughout the centuries focusing on the Netherlands. To what extent is our experience of Dutch literature prefigured by brands and what role does branding play when introducing European authors in the Dutch literary field or vice versa. By answering these questions Branding Books Across the Ages seeks to show how literary scholars understand branding a phenomenon that has long been intertwined with literature

From various perspectives Herman Koch tells the dark tale of a writer in decline a teenage couple in love a missing teacher and a single book that entwines all of their fates. Thanks to M s novel supposedly a work of fiction everyone seems to be linked forever until something unexpected spins the story off its rails. With racing tension sardonic wit and a world renowned sharp eye for human failings Herman Koch once again spares nothing and no one in his gripping new novel a barbed tour de force suspending readers in the mysterious literary gray space between fact and fiction
