Alvis, 2020-03-24 Throughout the church's long history Christians have sought out wise mentors to guide them on the journey toward God. A Science of the Saints explores the dynamics of spiritual direction as revealed in the lives and writings of a wide array of exemplary disciples from the Desert Fathers and Mothers to Thomas Merton and from St Teresa of Avila to St Teresa Benedicta of the Cross Edith Stein. How to See the Holy Spirit, Angels, and Demons Gordon James Klingenschmitt, 2013-12-01 Are God angels and demons really invisible? Or can the spirits be seen with human eyes through the lens of Church Ethics? The gift of discerning of spirits is indispensable to the study of church ethics. Ignatius of Loyola founder of the Society of Jesus Jesuits wrote two sets of Rules for Discerning of Spirits in his Spiritual Exercises in the early 1500s. He taught how the church can receive from God the gift to see otherwise invisible angels demons and the Holy Spirit. Ignatius views were influenced by John Cassian Jacobus de Voragine Ludolph of Saxony and Thomas Kempis. Ignatius Rules are exegeted in dialogue with contemporary scholars Karl Rahner Hugo Rahner Piet Penning de Vries Jules Toner and Timothy Gallagher and applied to one study of ecclesial ethics in the narrative theology of Samuel Wells. A four step Ignatian pneumato ethical method is developed which any analyst can follow to see the spirits by consolation desolation consent manifestation and pneumato ethics. This method revolutionizes how we study ecclesiology soteriology missiology world religions liturgy worship Eucharist hermeneutics homiletics pastoral counseling church history and politics. The spirits are not invisible at all. They can be clearly discerned through the lens of ecclesial ethics

The Cambridge Encyclopedia of the Jesuits Armstrong, Megan and Corkery, James , SJ, and Fleming, Alison and Worcester, Thomas SJ Prieto, Andrés Ignacio

Shea, Henry , SJ,     The Light Shines on in the Darkness Fr. Robert J. Spitzer, S.J., Ph.D, 2017-04-10 Why would an all loving God allow suffering? Aren't suffering and love opposed to one another? Does suffering have any benefit for this life? Does it have any benefit for eternal life? Is there any objective evidence for God for a soul that will survive bodily death for the resurrection of Jesus? If there is testable objective evidence for a resurrection what is this resurrection like? Who is God anyway benevolent and loving or angry and retributive? Father Spitzer gives a comprehensive explanation of contemporary evidence for God the soul and the resurrection and helps us understand how God uses suffering to lead us to the resurrection and to compassion for others. He also shows how the Holy Spirit guides us through times of suffering toward our salvation and other salvation explaining the signs and interior movements that reveal the Spirit's actions. But even armed with this eternal perspective serious questions remain If God has power over nature why doesn't He just perform a lot more miracles when we pray for them so that we won't have to suffer Why did God make the natural world imperfect in the first place Wouldn't it have been better to create us in a world without suffering without challenge need and self sacrifice Father Spitzer not only addresses the perplexing questions associated with suffering but he teaches us how to suffer well He points out some of the most common errors we make in interpreting God's motives for and alleviation of suffering He explains why suffering in combination with love is one of the most powerful motivating agents for personal cultural and societal development Suffering and love are inextricably bound up with one another on the highest levels of human meaning
