The Dismantling Brian DeLeeuw, 2015-04-28 How much of yourself are you willing to sell At twenty five Simon Worth is a med school dropout facing the grim reality of failure and massive student loans Left with few options he becomes an organ broker for a black market organization matching cash strapped donors with recipients whose time on the transplant list is running out Tasked with finding a donor for Lenny Pellegrini a severely depressed ex NFL player who s been drinking himself to death Simon s luck appears to change when he s contacted by Maria Campos a young woman desperate for cash whose liver happens to be the perfect match The transplant goes according to plan until soon afterward when Maria disappears and Lenny makes a cruel and destructive decision As Simon s world becomes increasingly dangerous he learns of an unspeakable secret from Maria s past and must decide against his better moral judgment that the only way he ll survive is to trust her Chilling and fast paced The Dismantling questions the meaning of atonement and asks how you can reconcile the person you once were and the person you want to be with the person you are today Power in Politics and Academia in Jonathan Coe's Novels Denisa Dumitrascu, 2018-04-18 This book explores the intricate manifestations of contemporary power its related ideology and the resistance and reaction to the dominant discourse in Jonathan Coe s political fiction covering the dismantling of the British social democratic consensus Thatcherism and Blairism up to the new ideology of Globalism Beyond the predictable dichotomy of support opposition to power the book argues the modern individual seems to have found another ontological approach for which it coins the concept of intentional unpower Furthermore it demonstrates that there are three possibilities regarding the evolution of this type of social response and invites the readers to discover them while enjoying Coe s subtlety and humour Given its broad approach the book will appeal to researchers in a wide range of domains including literary and cultural studies political theory and sociology as well as any reader fascinated with the essence of power intellectual response and discourses containing their own elements of subversion A Companion to the American Novel Alfred Bendixen, 2012-05-07 Featuring 37 essays by distinguished literary scholars A Companion to the American Novel provides a comprehensive single volume treatment of the development of the novel in the United States from the late 18th century to the present day Represents the most comprehensive single volume introduction to this popular literary form currently available Features 37 contributions from a wide range of distinguished literary scholars Includes essays on topics and genres historical overviews and key individual works including The Scarlet Letter Moby Dick The Great Gatsby Beloved and many more The Colonial Wars in Contemporary Portuguese Fiction Isabel Moutinho, 2008 The Portuguese fiction that awakened public debate on imperialism The colonial wars in Angola Mozambique and Guinea Bissau in the 1960s and 1970s were Portugal s Vietnam The novels discussed in this study written by Ant nio Lobo Antunes L dia Jorge and Manuel Alegre among others aroused passionate responses from the reading public and initiated a national debate otherwise lacking in the contemporary press with their systematic deconstruction of the rhetoric of patriotism and colonialism of Ant nio Salazar s regime The author's approach is of necessity grounded in postcolonial thought as these works represent the awakening of a post imperial conscience in Portuguese literature and society ISABEL MOUTINHO is a Lecturer in Spanish and Portuguese at La Trobe University Australia Deleuze's Literary Theory Catarina Pombo Nabais, 2020-08-10 Literature holds a privileged place in Deleuze's works Not only is it the art that most clearly reveals his aesthetics but it also serves as the laboratory of his thought the space where he experiments with concepts that become part of his ongoing philosophical project In this brilliant analyses of Deleuze's texts on Proust Sacher Masoch Kafka Carmelo Bene Melville and Beckett Pombo Nabais traces the development of Deleuze's aesthetics across three distinct periods of his thought the transcendental empiricism of Difference and Repetition and The Logic of Sense the philosophy of Nature of Anti Oedipus and A Thousand Plateaus and the philosophy of Spirit of The Fold What Is Philosophy and Essays Critical and Clinical More than a simple account of Deleuze's literary theory and aesthetics this book offers a provocative and original reading of Deleuze's entire philosophy highlighting the question of modality the actual the virtual the possible the impossible and the impossible the problematic relationship between the event and the assemblage and the unifying theme of the vitalism of nonorganic life

In the world of mimes, a novel, by Lewis Melville Lewis Melville, Lewis Saul Benjamin, 1902 Novels W. Wilkie Collins, 1890 The Waverley Novels Walter Scott, 1893 Waverley Novels Sir Walter Scott, 1871 Framing the Margins Phillip Brian Harper, 1994-01-06 This dramatic rereading of postmodernism seeks to broaden current theoretical conceptions of the movement as both a social philosophical condition and a literary and cultural phenomenon Phil Harper contends that the fragmentation considered to be characteristic of the postmodern age can in fact be traced to the status of marginalized groups in the United States since long before the contemporary era This status is reflected in the work of American writers from the thirties through the fifties whom Harper addresses in this study including Nathanael West Ana's Nin Djuna Barnes Ralph Ellison and Gwendolyn Brooks Treating groups that are disadvantaged or disempowered whether by circumstance of gender race or sexual orientation the writers profiled here occupy the cusp between the modern and the postmodern between the recognizably modernist aesthetic of alienation and the fragmented disordered sensibility of postmodernism Proceeding through close readings of these literary texts in relation to various mass cultural productions Harper examines the social placement of the texts in the scope of literary history while analyzing more minutely the interior effects of marginalization implied by the fictional characters enacting these narratives In particular he demonstrates how these works represent the experience of social marginality as highly fractured and fracturing and indicates how such experience is implicated in the phenomenon of postmodernist fragmentation Harper thus accomplishes the vital task of recentring cultural focus on issues and groups that are decentered by very definition and thereby specifies the sociopolitical significance of postmodernism in a way that has not yet been done The Novels and Romances of Edward Bulwer Lytton (Lord Lytton). Nathanael West by this time is larger no doubt than his entire output less than 450 pages in the one volume complete edition. Yet West's four short novels all written in the 1930s and surrounded by his reputation as a Hollywood script writer continue to fascinate readers who still look for sign and symbol of the book's importance. Irving Malin, a frequent contributor to this series, has taken a new approach to West's novels. Rather than an examination of sources, his new book provides for the first time a chronological chapter-by-chapter examination of the novels. This detailed textual explication shows the novel's designs which create their powerful effects by the accumulation of significant recurring details.
