Holiday! Robert Garvey,1953 Holiday Specials on Television, 1939-2021 Vincent Terrace,2023-01-26 In November 1939 NBC's fledgling television station W2XBS broadcast the first known holiday special The Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Despite its small viewership, very few TV sets existed at the time, the experimental telecast was a harbinger of a now beloved American tradition: the holiday television special. This book offers a thorough account of holiday television specials in the United States from 1939 to 2021, highlighting variety shows, comedic performances, musical spectacles, and more. From familiar favorites like 1964's Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer to campy one-offs like 1985's He-Man and She-Ra: A Christmas Special, the 1140 programs are covered alphabetically and feature performance casts, production credits, and storylines for each. Three appendices cover lost holiday specials along with Christmas and Halloween-themed episodes of popular television series.

Native Sayed Kashua,2016-02-02 Essays by Jerusalem's version of Charles Bukowski. Just as aware and critical of his city, his family, Israel, the Arabs, but most of all of himself. NPR's Sayed Kashua has been praised by the New York Times as a master of subtle nuance in dealing with both Arab and Jewish society. An Arab Israeli who lived in Jerusalem for most of his life, Kashua started writing with the hope of creating one story that both Palestinians and Israelis could relate to, rather than two that cannot coexist together. He devoted his novels and his satirical weekly column, published in Haaretz, to telling the Palestinian story and exploring the contradictions of modern Israel, while also capturing the nuances of everyday family life in all its tenderness and chaos. With an intimate tone fueled by deep-seated apprehension and razor-sharp ironic wit, Kashua has been documenting his own life as well as that of society at large. He writes about his children's upbringing and encounters with racism, about fatherhood and married life, the Jewish-Arab conflict, his professional ambitions, travels around the world as an author, and more than anything, his love of books and literature. He brings forth a series of brilliant, caustic, wry, and fearless reflections on social and cultural dynamics as experienced by someone who straddles two societies. One of the most celebrated satirists in Hebrew literature, Kashua has an acerbic dry wit and a talent for turning everyday events into apocalyptic scenarios. Philadelphia Inquirer: What is most striking in these columns is the universality of what it means to be a father, husband, and man. Toronto Star
