Labor Day Reading Passage

Name: _____

Labor Day is a federal holiday celebrated on the first Monday of September. A federal holiday means that schools and businesses are closed. But did you know that Labor Day didn't always exist? Why are we even celebrating it?

In the late 1800s, there was a movement for better working conditions. A laborer was typically someone who worked for someone else, such as a farmer or a factory worker. It was common for laborers to work 12 hours per day, 6 days per week. And this even included kids like you!

The Labor Movement demanded better conditions for labor workers. Their demands included an 8-hour workday and a Sunday law. Many of these demands were met, and Labor Day was created to honor the workers who made these changes possible.
