Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Epidemiology, Health, and Population Indian Society for Medical Statistics. Conference,2002 Proceedings of the 18th annual conference of Indian Society for Medical Statistics held 18 20 November at Agra in the Indian context Interventions for Adolescent Identity Development Sally L. Archer,1994-02-04 Do adolescents have a critical period of identity development How much identity activity is needed in each of the life domains such as career family and ideology for healthy adolescent development An interdisciplinary team of scholars and practitioners addresses these and related questions to examine what we know about adolescent identity formation and how this information can be effectively used to intervene with adolescents to provide them with better guidance about their life choices Identity and Development Harke Bosma,1994-09-15 Since these disciplines explicitly address both concepts of identity and development with well differentiated points of view the reader is able to see how the perspective offered by one discipline can inform another The book is organized into three parts psychoanalysis psychology and history and literature and each section is introduced by a description of the role of each chapter in that section and the role that the section plays in the volume as a whole The book also includes introductory and concluding chapters that provide the context as well as the summation of a multidisciplinary approach to identity and development Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods John H. Stanfield (II.),1993-05-05 Studying across race and ethnic lines creates many problems for the researcher These problems involve practical strategic ethical and epistemological questions alike The contributors to Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods most of them scholars of color examine the array of methods used in quantitative qualitative and comparative historical research to show how ethnic sensitive research can best be carried out Among the methodological traditions discussed are survey research demography testing and assessment ethnography discourse analysis comparative methods and archival research Of interest not only to the researcher and instructor of race and ethnic studies this volume should be of equal value to social scientists interested in teaching or practicing any form of research that needs to properly address issues of race and ethnicity This comprehensive guide will be an invaluable resource for anyone who teaches and or is engaged in research in the field of race and ethnicity Behavioural Psychotherapy I highly recommend this volume for those researchers who are genuinely interested in producing better and more creative solutions to some of the issues and problems involving racial and ethnic minority groups Journal of Marketing Research In Race and Ethnicity in Research Methods John H Stanfield II and Rutledge M Dennis call for serious and rigorous treatment of the subject which sheds the journalistic style narrow focus and cultural bias of much of past research They bring together 13 articles that reveal the rich diversity of methods available for researching ethnic groups and ethnic relations There is a healthy dose of multidisciplinarity The book is essential for U S race and ethnic researchers who seek to avoid the narrowness and pitfalls of much past research I would recommend this book for research seminars on race and ethnic relations specifically and for general methodology courses which seek to present the diversity of approaches to sociological issues Contemporary Sociology This book contains essays that will stimulate much discussion among scholars while providing practical ethical and strategic methodological considerations for conducting research across racial and ethnic lines Nursing Research    Nonresidential Parenting Charlene E. Depner,James H. Bray,1993-02-04 Contributing scholars draw from research policy and practice sources to identify the array of roles that nonresidential parents maya play in the lives of their children Taking a multidimensional approach that views the family as an entity that changes over time they also explore such issues as variation in nonresidential parenting across ethnic
