Wonder Image And Cosmos In Medieval Islam:

Wonder, Image, and Cosmos in Medieval Islam Persis Berlekamp, 2011 This original book untangles fundamental confusions about historical relationships among Islam representational images and philosophy Closely examining some of the most meaningful and best preserved premodern illustrated manuscripts of Islamic cosmographies Persis Berlekamp refutes the assertion often made by other historians of medieval Islamic art that while representational images did exist they did not serve religious purposes The author focuses on widely disseminated Islamic images of the wonders of creation Show more This original book untangles fundamental confusions about historical relationships among Islam representational images and philosophy Closely examining some of the most meaningful and best preserved premodern illustrated manuscripts of Islamic cosmographies Persis Berlekamp refutes the assertion often made by other historians of medieval Islamic art that while representational images did exist they did not serve religious purposes The author focuses on widely disseminated Islamic images of the wonders of creation ranging from angels to human snatching birds and argues that these illustrated manuscripts aimed to induce wonder at God's creation as was their stated purpose She tracks the various ways that images advanced that purpose in the genre's formative milieu the century and a half following the Mongol conquest of the Islamic East in 1258 Delving into social history and into philosophical ideas relevant to manuscript and image production Berlekamp shows that philosophy occupied an established if controversial position within Islam She thereby radically reframes representational images within the history of Islam

Imagination and Fantasy in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2020-08-24 The notions of other peoples cultures and natural conditions have always been determined by the epistemology of imagination and fantasy providing much freedom and creativity and yet have also created much fear anxiety and horror In this regard the pre modern world demonstrates striking parallels with our own insofar as the projections of alterity might be different by degrees but they are fundamentally the same by content Dreams illusions projections concepts hopes utopias dystopias desires and emotional attachments are as specific and impactful as the physical environment This volume thus sheds important light on the various lenses used by people in the Middle Ages and the early modern age as to how they came to terms with their perceptions images and notions Previous scholarship focused heavily on the history of mentality and history of emotions whereas here the history of pre modern imagination and fantasy assumes center position Imaginary things are taken seriously because medieval and early modern writers and artists clearly reveal their great significance in their works and their daily lives This approach facilitates a new deep structure analysis of pre modern culture

Persian Cultures of Power and the Entanglement of the Afro-Eurasian World Matthew P. Canepa, 2024-01-02 A cutting edge analysis of 2 500 years of Persian visual architectural and material cultures of power and their role in connecting the world With the rise of the Achaemenid Empire 550-330 BCE Persian institutions of kingship became the model for legitimacy authority and prestige across three continents Despite enormous upheavals Iranian visual and political cultures connected an ever wider swath of Afro Eurasia over the next two millennia exerting influence at key historical junctures. This book provides the first critical exploration of the role Persian cultures played in articulating the myriad ways power was expressed across Afro Eurasia between the sixth century BCE and the nineteenth century CE. Exploring topics such as royal cosmologies, fashion, banqueting, manuscript cultures, sacred landscapes and inscriptions, the volume's essays analyze the intellectual and political exchanges of art, architecture, ritual and luxury material within and beyond the Persian world. They show how Perso Iranian cultures offered neighbors and competitors raw material with which to formulate their own imperial aspirations. Unique among studies of Persia and Iran, this volume explores issues of change, renovation and interconnectivity in these cultures over the longue durée.

The Iconic Imagination Douglas Hedley, 2016-02-25. Is it merely an accident of English etymology that imagination is cognate with image? Despite the iconoclasm shared to a greater or lesser extent by all Abrahamic faiths, theism tends to assert a link between beauty, goodness and truth, all of which are viewed as Divine attributes. Douglas Hedley argues that religious ideas can be presented in a sensory form, especially in aesthetic works. Drawing explicitly on a Platonic metaphysics of the image as a bearer of transcendence, The Iconic Imagination shows the singular capacity and power of images to represent the transcendent in the traditions of Christianity, Judaism, Hinduism and Islam. In opposition to cold abstraction and narrow asceticism, Hedley shows that the image furnishes a vision of the eternal through the visible and temporal.

Emotions and Monotheism John Corrigan, 2024-05-31. The emotional turn in scholarship has changed the way in which historians of religion think about monotheistic traditions. New histories of religion have adapted and incorporated the totalizing sensibilities of twentieth-century annalistes, the granular view of social historians, groundbreaking philosophical investigations and the spirit of interdisciplinary collaboration between historical analysis, anthropology and psychology. Religion as a principal bearer of culture has shaped emotional life profoundly just as human emotion has constituted religious life. Taking a qualified constructivist approach to emotion enables understanding of the dynamism, fluidity and ambiguity in emotional experience alongside continuities and facilitates analysis of how that feeling has animated religious life in monotheistic traditions. It equally sharpens insight into how monotheistic religion itself has made emotion. Affect, emotion and mixed emotions are three categories of feelings evidenced in monotheistic religions. Each is illustrated with respect to the similarities and differences among Judaism, Christianity and Islam.
