The Development Reader:

The Development Reader Sharad Chari, Stuart Corbridge, 2008 Comprising writings ordered around intentional and imminent development this reader offers a compendium of classical and contemporary debates on development Adam Smith and Karl Marx meet among others Robert Wade Amartya Sen and Jeffrey Sachs The Community Development Reader James DeFilippis, Susan Saegert, 2012 The Community Development Reader is the first comprehensive reader in the past thirty years that brings together practice theory and critique concerning communities as sites of social change The second edition is significantly updated and expanded to include a section on globalization as well as new chapters on the foreclosure crisis and emerging forms of community The Globalization and Development Reader J. Timmons Roberts, Amy Bellone Hite, Nitsan Chorev, 2014-10-13 This revised and updated second edition of The Globalization and Development Reader builds on the considerable success of a first edition that has been used around the world It combines selected readings and editorial material to provide a coherent text with global coverage reflecting new theoretical and empirical developments Main text and core reference for students and professionals studying the processes of social change and development in third world countries Carefully excerpted materials facilitate the understanding of classic and contemporary writings Second edition includes 33 essential readings including 21 new selections New pieces cover the impact of the recession in the global North global inequality and uneven development gender international migration the role of cities agriculture and on the governance of pharmaceuticals and climate change politics Increased coverage of China and India help to provide genuinely global coverage and for a student readership the materials have been subject to a higher degree of editing in the new edition Includes a general introduction to the field and short insightful section introductions to each reading New readings include selections by Alexander Gershenkron Alice Amsden Amartya Sen Anne Marie Slaughter Cecile Jackson Dani Rodrik David Harvey Greta Krippner Kathryn Sikkink Leslie Sklair Margaret E Keck Michael Burawoy Nitsan Chorev Oscar Lewis Patrick Bond Peter Evans Philip McMichael Pranab Bardhan Ruth Pearson Sarah Babb Saskia Sassen and Steve Radelet The Community Development Reader Craig, Gary, Mayo, Marjorie, 2011-05-18 This unique Reader traces the changing fortunes of community development through a selection of readings from key writers The Development Dictionary @25 Aram Ziai, 2020-05-21 Few books in the history of Development Studies have had an impact like The Development Dictionary A Guide to Knowledge as Power which was edited by Wolfgang Sachs and published by Zed Books in 1992 The Development Dictionary was crucial in establishing what has become known as the Post Development PD school This volume is devoted to the legacy of The Development Dictionary and to discussing Post Development This book originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly The Development and Antidevelopment Debate Dr Martha Jalali Rabbani, 2013-03-28 Reflecting on the philosophical assumptions that sustain the development debate Rabbani analyzes how the modern project of development and the antidevelopment discourse reduce the human condition to a struggle for self preservation and likewise social and international cooperation to a strategic and self defeating process The book centers on core inconsistencies in the rationale of both discourses as they stand for individual autonomy collective self determination and mutual respect Building these social goals around the requirement of non interference in individual or collective affairs neither discourse can practically enhance nor coherently sustain respect to people s freedom and diversity The author argues that any real alternative to the normative reductions and actual destructions carried on by international development theory and practice would have to recover the non contingent solidarity implied in people s search for self understanding Awareness of this human condition in its turn actively fosters relations of universal inclusion and global friendship Instructors and graduate and undergraduate students in the fields of peace studies development studies political sciences and political philosophy professionals and volunteers working in governmental and non governmental organizations and development agencies will find this volume ideally fit for purpose

This book is an ethnography of development in practice It builds on recent work in the anthropology of development in its examination of the evolution and persistence of a number of key ideas about gender technology and race It explores how these are rooted in both material practices and ideologies notably the Enlightenment and colonialism but goes beyond previous studies which have tended to focus mainly on the apparently monolithic power of the developers The authors argue for a more nuanced account of power through analysis of the relationship between individual agency and structural constraint Their fascinating study shows how a simple dichotomy between us the developers and them the victims of development misconstrues the nature of the processes involved
