The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window Lorraine Hansberry, 2012-02-22 From the award winning author of A Raisin in the Sun comes one of the most electrifying classic masterpieces of the American theater an unforgettable portrait of a man struggling with his individual fate in an age of racial and social injustice Rich and warm and funny beautifully written Los Angeles Times The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window along with A Raisin in the Sun are milestones in the American theater remarkable not only for their historical value but for their continued ability to engage the imagination and the heart It is drama of such clarity that one may return to it again and again and I expect emerge as deeply moved and each time the more illumined Miss Hansberry I am convinced doesn't know how to create a character who isn't gloriously diverse illuminatingly contradictory heart breakingly alive A personal odyssey of discovery a confrontation with others in the process of which Brustein discovers himself from the Foreword by John Braine With an Introduction by Robert Nemiroff From Box Office to Ballot Box M. Keith Booker, 2007-02-28 Given the complexity and expense of making and distributing a film the process of filmmaking is by its very nature a political process Moreover given the power and persuasiveness of the cinema as a medium film can be a powerful political tool It should thus come as no surprise that film has had a long and extensive engagement with a variety of political topics ranging from the actual mechanics of governance to electoral politics to any number of specific political issues Through a film by film examination of the movies explicitly concerned with American politics and American political issues From Box Office to Ballot Box provides valuable new insights into our culture's perceptions of various political environments and serves as a witness to the cinema's own complex contribution to the media's coverage of and relationship to American politics at large From Box Office to Ballot Box takes as its subject films exploring the electoral process the process of governing and the involvement of the media in both Separate chapters also deal with films related to specific political issues or phenomena that are particularly relevant to the above three categories including labor and class the Cold War the Vietnam War and the other recent conflicts in which the media has played such a large role Specific films discussed include Citizen Kane All the King's Men The Manchurian Candidate All the Presidents Men The Front M A S H JFK Nixon Wag the Dog Three Kings Black Hawk Down The Quiet American The Contender and many more Digital Signage Jimmy Schaeffler, 2012-09-10 Digital Signage gives you macro and micro views of the burgeoning digital signage industry Whether you are looking for new opportunities or to expand your business with this book you will be able to clearly understand and accurately analyze the developments trends and projections As part of the NAB Executive Technology Briefing series this book features the future impact of the technology across many different industries and platforms Explanations of hardware such as displays servers and PCs software such as dynamic on screen content and software management programs and technologies like systems integrations and network infrastructures are all covered Too Bold for the Box Office Cynthia J. Miller, 2012-08-02 Although considered a relatively new genre the mockumentary has existed nearly as long as filmmaking itself and has become one of the most common forms of film and television comedy today In order to better understand the larger cultural truths artfully woven into their deception these works demonstrate just how tenuous and problematic our collective understandings of our social worlds can be In Too Bold for the Box Office The Mockumentary from Big Screen to Small Cynthia J Miller has assembled essays by scholars and filmmakers who examine this unique cinematic form Individually each of these essays looks at a given instance of mockumentary parody and subversion examining the ways in which each calls into question our assumptions pleasures beliefs and even our senses Writing about national film television and new media traditions as diverse as their backgrounds this volume s contributors explore and theorize the workings of mockumentaries as well as the strategies and motivations of the writers and filmmakers who brought them into being Reflections by filmmakers Kevin Brownlow It Happened Here Christopher Hansen The Proper Care and Feeding of An American Messiah and Spencer Schaffner The Urban Literacy Manifesto add valued perspective and significantly deepen the discussions found in the volume s other contributions This collection of essays on films television programming and new media illustrates common threads running across cultures and eras and attempts to answer sweeping existential questions about the nature of social life and the human condition

Hollywood and the Box Office John Izod,1988-07-20 Changing business circumstances have put pressure on film studios and changed the nature of films they produce This book examines the reaction of the corporations who have found themselves in danger or have perceived new ways of adding to their profitability influencing the films they produce
