Boot and Shoe Recorder, 1894 Fall of Heaven Reinhold Messner, 2017-08-15 A classic event in mountaineering history dramatically retold by a classic mountaineer Ascending the Matterhorn was the 19th century equivalent of standing on Mars A great historical story of tension and drama Author is uniquely qualified to delve into Whymper's complicated personality As Fall of Heaven begins we join professional mountain guide Jean Antoine Carrel as he tries and fails again and again to summit the Matterhorn one of the most famous and iconic peaks in the Alps Is it the Devil's mountain as the locals call it Should he heed the village priest who warned that its summit was not meant to be climbed Carrel is undeterred he just needs capable climbers to join him Enter Edward Whymper who in 1861 at the age of 21 decided unbeknownst to Carrel that he would be the first to climb the Matterhorn So the storyline is set except that where Carrel is captivating Whymper is utterly unsympathetic as an adventurer He is mean and disdainful of guides describing them as little more than porters who eat and drink too much Despite this attitude Whymper's quest leads him inexorably into partnership with Carrel The story follows their many attempts to find a route to the top of the Matterhorn but then fate pulls them apart just as Whymper finds the line His successful summit on July 14 1865 in which Carrel did not take part shocked the Victorian world with both awe and revulsion as four members of Whymper's party died in frightening falls Famed climber and author Reinhold Messner acknowledges that Whymper was the first man to summit the Matterhorn the last of the great Alpine peaks to be climbed and representing the beginning of an age of alpinism based on difficulty rather than conquest But rather than leaving a hero's legacy Whymper is revealed as the Captain Ahab of alpinism a team leader who accepted no responsibility for the deaths of his teammates Fall of Heaven is an exciting tale and an examination of the different types of men who were caught up in the adventuring spirit of the Victorian age and the ironic fates that can follow success or failure

Defying the Iranian Revolution

Manouchehr Ganji,2002-09-30 The realities of Iranian life are far more harrowing than most people imagine from the outside Ganji paints a portrait of duplicitous clerics arbitrarily arresting torturing mutilating and executing citizens all in the name of Islamic Justice A system of apartheid has been instituted against women While 60% of the population lives below the poverty line the mullah regime has hoarded billions of dollars in accounts and properties in Europe Canada and Japan Roughly 70% of the population is under 30 years of age and opposes the regime In the year of 2001 alone 220 000 people mostly educated youth left the country in search of better lives Ganji stresses that the best defense against terrorism is offense and that the United States can and must establish a proactive policy of helping Iranians struggling for the freedom of Iran in and out of the country Western policies toward the Iranian mullah regime have thus far been reactionary rather than proactive The regime in Iran has been an incubator of international terrorism aiding and abetting international terrorist groups in and out of the Middle East The author argues that now is the time for the United States to substitute rhetoric with action in policies toward the ruling clerics in Iran
