Fundamental Rights, Religion and Human Dignity Javier Martínez-Torrón, Li-ann Thio, 2024-12-02 This collection examines theoretical and practical issues concerning the relationship between freedom of religion or belief and other fundamental rights in the context of secular States from the perspective of human dignity As the Universal Declaration of Human Rights made clear human dignity constitutes the foundation of human rights among which freedom of thought conscience and religion occupies a prominent place As a consequence of the inter cultural debate that is ongoing in contemporary Western societies which are increasingly pluralistic the concept of human dignity faces important challenges in terms of what it requires The five chapters included in the first part of this book discuss some of these conceptual challenges such as the implications of common good constitutionalism for the understanding of human dignity and the role of religious freedom from the perspective of Western experiences and legal thinkers The chapters in Part II explore particular questions involving human dignity and the relationship between freedom of religion or belief and other human rights for example how to build bridges between religious freedom and other fundamental freedoms when people make conflicting legitimate choices Taken together the book offers an insightful range of perspectives on some contemporary challenges raised by the exercise of religious freedom in societies that claim to be based on respect for human dignity and human rights The volume will be a valuable resource for academics researchers and policy makers working in the areas of Law and Religion Human Rights Law Constitutional Law and International Relations
