The Star Of Apocalypse:

The Star of Apocalypse Itamar Bernstein,1999-01-01 The Morning Star and Free Baptist ,1901 The Cosmic Journey in the Book of Revelation Joel M. Rothman,2023-05-18 Joel M Rothman considers the significance of cosmology in biblical and extra biblical texts and the role of the cosmic journey in many apocalyptic narratives He posits that Revelation s narrative likewise takes the hearer on a virtual journey through a cosmic story space of great theological significance While scholarship commonly assumes a three tiered cosmos in Revelation Rothman argues that Revelation s narrative operates in a four tiered cosmos with the hyper heaven sitting above the sky heaven earth and abyssal depths a cosmic story space that is recreated in the imagination of the hearers Beginning with a methodology of visual narrative reading Rothman then discusses the assumptions and existing conceptions regarding heaven and earth He stresses that Revelation does not exhibit tension in its portrayal of heaven between heaven as a site of conflict and heaven as the realm in which God truly reigns but rather shows readers a sky heaven characterised by archetypal conflict between powerful sky beings and a hyper heaven defined by full recognition of the Throne In journeying through the sky structure and God space and by analysing the four cosmic layers in operation the distinct nature of the two sky spaces cosmic change and the ideological import of the cosmic structure Rothman demonstrates that the existence of the hyper heaven in contradistinction with the limited lived cosmos of earth and sky heaven is a present guarantee of the final cosmic transformation that creates a new space for human life exclusive of imperial draconian elements The Destroyer and the Lamb Matthias Reinhard Hoffmann,2005 Matthias Reinhard Hoffmann identifies an angelomorphic portrait of Christ in certain passages of Revelation and provides possible reasons for the inclusion of an angelomorphic Christology Angelomorphic Christology is not regarded as an isolated christological concept In turn the author compares angelomorphic Christology with the prominent Lamb Christology of Revelation A comparison of these concepts reveals that both Lamb and angelomorphic Christology serve the purpose of contrasting different functions of Christ The functions correspond with the implied perception of Christ by his followers on the one hand and his opponents on the other Accordingly Christ appears to be an eschatological juridical figure described in angelomorphic patterns to his opposition while he is perceived as salvific redeemer in form of the Lamb by those who believe in him Such a christological perspective draws on traditions from the Exodus narrative namely the features of the Passover Lamb and the Destroying Angel Further equality between God and Christ is established despite an angelomorphic portrait of Christ especially those passages describing Christ as the Lamb put him on par with God But also within visions with an angelomorphic description of Christ his status as superior to angels and as an equal to God is displayed A New Light of Mysticism. Azoth, Or The Star in the East ... Arthur Edward Waite,1893 A Quick History of the Universe Clive Gifford,2021-04-06 Strap in for a rip roaring ride through the history of the universe starting with the Big Bang and bringing us right up to present day What was the universe like when it was a few seconds old How had it changed by its millionth
