Kinship and Marriage in Early Arabia Smith, 1885 Inside the Castle Joanna L. Grossman, Lawrence M. Friedman, 2011-07-18 A comprehensive social history of families and family law in twentieth century America Inside the Castle is a comprehensive social history of twentieth century family law in the United States Joanna Grossman and Lawrence Friedman show how vast oceanic changes in society have reshaped and reconstituted the American family Women and children have gained rights and powers and novel forms of family life have emerged The family has more or less dissolved into a collection of independent individuals with their own wants desires and goals Modern family law as always reflects the brute social and cultural facts of family life The story of family law in the twentieth century is complex This was the century that said goodbye to common law marriage and breach of promise lawsuits This was the century too of the sexual revolution and women's liberation of gay rights and cohabitation Marriage lost its powerful monopoly over legitimate sexual behavior Couples who lived together without marriage now had certain rights Gay marriage became legal in a handful of jurisdictions By the end of the century no state still prohibited same sex behavior Children in many states could legally have two mothers or two fathers No fault divorce became cheap and easy And illegitimacy lost most of its social and legal stigma These changes were not smooth or linear all met with resistance and provoked a certain amount of backlash Families took many forms some of them new and different and though buffeted by the winds of change the family persisted as a central institution in society Inside the Castle tells the story of that institution exploring the ways in which law tried to penetrate and control this most mysterious realm of personal life     Narrating Marriage in Eighteenth-Century England and France Chris Roulston,2016-04-22 In the eighteenth century when the definition of marriage was shifting from one based on an hierarchical model to one based on notions of love and mutuality marital life came under a more intense cultural scrutiny This led to paradoxical forms of representation of marriage as simultaneously ideal and unlivable Chris Roulston analyzes how as representations of married life increased they challenged the traditional courtship model offering narratives based on repetition rather than progression Beginning with English and French marital advice literature which appropriated novelistic conventions at the same time that it cautioned readers about the dangers of novel reading she looks at representations of ideal marriages in Pamela II and The New Heloise Moving on from these ideal domestic spaces bourgeois marriage is then problematized by the discourse of empire in Sir George Ellison and Letters of Mistress Henley by troublesome wives in works by Richardson and Samuel de Constant and by abusive husbands in works by Haywood Edgeworth Genlis and Restif de la Bretonne Finally the alternative marriage narrative in which the adultery motif is incorporated into the marriage itself redefines the function of heteronormativity In exploring the theoretical issues that arise during this transitional period for married life and the marriage plot Roulston expands the debates around the evolution of the modern couple     The Fortnightly ,1924     Modern Youth and Marriage Henry Neumann,1928     A History of the Four Georges Justin McCarthy,1903     How the World Weds Claudia De Lys,2012-09-01     Can You Be a Catholic and a Feminist? Julie Hanlon Rubio,2024 Is it possible to reconcile Catholic and feminist identities Julie Hanlon Rubio argues that it is but only if we rethink how women and men who experience the pull of feminism and Catholicism can credibly claim both identities     A History of the Four Georges and of William IV. Justin McCarthy,Justin Huntly McCarthy,1905     A ^AModest Apostle Susan E. Gushee Amy Laura Hall Daniel Harrington Dennis Olson Christine Pohl Glen Stassen and Max Stackhouse      Henry James, Gertrude Stein, and the Biographical Act Charles Caramello, 2000-11-09 Focusing on biographical portraiture Charles Caramello argues that Henry James and Gertrude Stein performed biographical acts in two senses of the phrase they wrote biography but as a cover for autobiography Constructing literary genealogies while creating original literary forms they used their biographical portraits of precursors and contemporaries to portray themselves as exemplary modern artists Caramello advances this argument through close readings of four works that explore themes of artistry and influence and that experiment with forms of biographical portraiture James s early biography of Nathaniel Hawthorne and his much later group biography William Wetmore Story and His Friends and Stein s celebrated Autobiography of Alice B Toklas and her largely forgotten Four in America which comprises biographies of Ulysses S Grant Wilbur Wright Henry James and George Washington The first comparative study of these two great expatriate writers Henry James Gertrude Stein and the Biographical Act addresses questions of art influence and literary culture by analyzing important biographical portraits that themselves address the same questions Originally published 1996 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value      Moving Picture World and View Photographer ,1915      The Story of a Marriage Louisa Baldwin,1889      Studies in Ancient History, Comprising a Reprint of Primitive Marriage John Ferguson McLennan,1886
