The Whitehouse Cookbook (1887) F. L. Gillette,2014-05-12 Carving is one important acquisition in the routine of daily living and all should try to attain a knowledge or ability to do it well and withal gracefully When carving use a chair slightly higher than the ordinary size as it gives a better purchase on the meat and appears more graceful than when standing as is often quite necessary when carving a turkey or a very large joint More depends on skill than strength The platter should be placed opposite and sufficiently near to give perfect command of the article to be carved the knife of medium size sharp with a keen edge Commence by cutting the slices thin laying them carefully to one side of the platter then afterwards placing the desired amount on each guest s plate to be served in turn by the servant In carving fish care should be taken to help it in perfect flakes for if these are broken the beauty of the fish is lost The carver should acquaint himself with the choicest parts and morsels and to give each guest an equal share of those tidbits should be his maxim Steel knives and forks should on no account be used in helping fish as these are liable to impart a very disagreeable flavor A fish trowel of silver or plated silver is the proper article to use
