Why A Suffering World Makes Sense:

Why a Suffering World Makes Sense Chris Tiegreen, 2006 Tiegreen reveals that there is a point to suffering it reveals God's mercy forgiveness and healing that can only be known in an imperfect world He encourages readers to let God's hidden attributes be revealed in their pain thereby helping them unravel the mystery of who God is Psychology and Spiritual Formation in Dialogue Thomas M. Crisp, Steven L. Porter, Gregg A. Ten Elshof, 2019-01-22 Can the phenomena of the human mind be separated from the practices of spiritual formation Research into the nature of moral and spiritual change has revived in recent years in both the worlds of psychology and theology Rooted in a year long discussion held by Biola University's Center for Christian Thought CCT this volume bridges the gaps caused by professional specialization among psychology theology and philosophy The Right to Pain Relief and Other Deep Roots of the Opioid Epidemic Mark Daniel Sullivan, Mark Sullivan, Jane Ballantyne, 2023 Containing patient vignettes as well as scientific and policy controversies that have emerged as the opioid epidemic has evolved The Right to Pain Relief and Other Deep Roots of the Opioid Epidemic examines the ethical and scientific concepts about pain that made the opioid epidemic possible and offers a new lens through which to view the opioid epidemic as a consequence of serious misunderstandings of both opioids and pain Dying to Live with God Thomas Michael Leighow, 2018-11-29 In Memory of Rebecca Ann Leighow 2 18 1951 10 17 2007 OVERVIEW Two of the most profound uncertainties that man can ponder are what is the meaning of life and what is the meaning of death Many would say that the answers to these questions are unknowable and too mysterious to be comprehended Reverend Thomas Leighow believes however that God has given us these answers contained within the pages of the Bible The only way we can live in peace and harmony with death is by having a true and correct perspective of what death actually is Death can only be properly understood when it is viewed through the eyes of the very Creator of life and death the God of the Bible In Dying to Live With God Rev Leighow opens the doors to understanding life and death as it should be understood from God's eternal perspective The reality of death and the meaning of death can only truly come from the mind of the One who set death in place Death is not just a by product of life rather death is a necessary component of the divine plan of a sovereign God who holds the power over life and death For those who live in fear of death or for those who have not recovered after the loss of a loved one this book will give you an understanding of death that will provide you with a blessed assurance and comfort to face your own valley of the shadow of death The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Mary Beth Werdel, 2023-10-24 The Paradox of Trauma and Growth in Pastoral and Spiritual Care Night Blooming introduces and bridges the gap between the psychological and spiritual perspectives and responses in trauma work illuminating the complexity of the human phenomenon of growth through suffering that is too easily misunderstood in the context of pastoral and spiritual care Through the hopeful metaphor of night bloomers rare plants that grow because of light but bloom in the darkness it is suggested that while psychological trauma is inherently negative and suffering creates a spiritual inner night moving through it may reveal a new complex reality of the human experience not previously understood We may see ourselves others or the world in a way that is stronger wiser deeper or more brilliant than we had known before The book presents the goal of pastoral and spiritual work is not to extinguish darkness Nor is it to solely focus on the light The work is to learn how to stay awake through the night without glorifying it Such a task is far easier when we believe there might be a rare and uniquely beautiful bloom to stay awake for and that witnessing such a bloom could have great consequences for living a meaningful life

The Epistemology of Desire and the Problem of Nihilism Allan Hazlett, 2024-04-24 Most people have wondered whether anything really matters some have temporarily thought that nothing really matters and some philosophers have defended the view that nothing really matters However if someone thinks that nothing matters if they are a nihilist about value then it seems that it is irrational for them to care about anything It seems that nihilism about value mandates total indifference This is the problem of nihilism Allan Hazlett addresses in The Epistemology of Desire and the Problem of Nihilism Hazlett argues that the problem of nihilism arises because desire and thus caring is a species of evaluation that admits of irrationality This contradicts the influential Humean view that desire does not admit of irrationality which has a ready solution to the problem of nihilism since desire does not admit of irrationality it cannot be irrational to care about something that you believe does not matter However following G E Anscombe Hazlett argues that desire has the same relationship to goodness as belief has to truth just as truth is the accuracy condition for belief goodness is the accuracy condition for desire This reveals desire as an appropriate target of epistemological inquiry in the same way that belief is an appropriate target of epistemological inquiry Desires can amount to knowledge in the same way that beliefs can amount to knowledge and crucially for the problem of nihilism desire admits of irrationality in the same way that belief admits of irrationality Nevertheless although it is obviously irrational to believe something that you believe is not true Hazlett argues that it is not irrational to desire something you believe is not good despite the fact that goodness is the accuracy condition for desire This provides a solution to the problem of nihilism and shows that nihilism about value can coherently be combined with the anti Humean view that desire is a species of evaluation
