

The Story of Johnny Appleseed

John Chapman was born on September 26, 1774 in the state of Massachusetts. He grew up in a little farm house, along with eleven other children. Johnny enjoyed playing with his friends, but he seemed to love the wild fields and forests near his home even more. As a young man, he left the farm and headed west. Johnny learned how to find nuts, berries, and roots. He loved sleeping under the stars.

During the winter of 1797, Johnny was caught in a snowstorm. He was cold, hungry, and didn't have a pair of shoes. He almost froze to death. The people of a town in Pennsylvania took him in. The next spring, Johnny built a cabin along a river. The river carried apple seeds to him from a cider mill upstream. Johnny saved the seeds and planted them. Soon he had an orchard on his land.
