Truth Unplugged: Guys Gena Maselli, 2004 Teen life is more complicated than just getting up and going to school Many teens face more grown up issues than ever before This collection of stories features teen characters dealing with real life issues and challenges to their faith and family Two Truths and a Guy Jeannine Henvey, 2021-10-12 High school is hard enough Imagine having to keep a secret that can change your twin's life Sixteen year old twins Stella and Peter move cross country with their parents to start fresh and leave their former life behind Will the past determine their future or will they finally get their happy ending Peter and Stella may be twins but individually their struggles are one of a kind From the outside they seem like two kids just trying to find their way at a new school but behind closed doors they deal with the emotional baggage from the past they've yet to unpack Beauty queen Mom counts Stella's every calorie rather than deal with Peter's transition And even though Dad supports Peter's true self he's blind to seeing Stella for who she really is She just wants to be a teenage girl known for anything other than her sibling Meanwhile with a skin tight binder around his chest and eagerness to fit in with his classmates Peter feels like he's suffocating All this just to have his outside match his inside and simply be If anyone learns their secret the family's sacrifice of moving to California will have been for nothing Brimming with a rollercoaster of emotion and unwavering hope Two Truths And A Guy is a heartfelt coming of age story that touches us with the power of loyalty the need for acceptance and the importance of living our truth Speaking Truths Dayna

Hester, 2011-04-14 Landon Starker is an anger imbued foul mouthed delinquent teenager with a horrific home life and an angry father who would challenge anyone's existence He hates school skips classes liberally and fears his father's reaction to all of it Then one day it all changes but why In the same vein as Catcher in the Rye Holden Caulfield Landon arrives at his existence through a tragedy wherein his psyche becomes fractured For emotional success Landon must work to recognize how his mind has engaged in self preservation a combination of repressing memories and redefining reality so it doesn't hurt when life's recordings invade the mind Landon starts to confront these repressed memories and warped views of his past when he's forcefully removed from his abusive home in Leigh Nebraska and placed in a counseling center He attempts a reentry into an old family he thought had abandoned him And while this therapeutic process seems to soothe his trauma another revelation demands that Landon search his repressed memories for the details of a serious crime he has no recollection of The truths flood in leaving the reader with a profound sense of how trauma robs the self of mind and spirit
