Uneven Growth Pedro Gadanho,2014 In 2030 the world's population will be a staggering eight billion people Of these two thirds will live in cities and most will be poor With limited resources this uneven growth will be one of the greatest challenges faced by societies across the globe Over the next years city authorities urban planners and designers economists and many others will have to join forces to avoid major social and economical catastrophes working together to ensure these expanding megacities will remain habitable To engage this international debate The Museum of Modern Art presents Uneven Growth Tactical Urbanisms for Expanding Megacities its third iteration in the Issues in Contemporary Architecture series Following the same model as the critically acclaimed Rising Currents Projects for New York's Waterfront and Foreclosed Rehousing the American Dream Uneven Growth brings together an international group of scholars practitioners and experts of architecture and urbanism in a series of workshops an exhibition and a publication to focus on how emergent forms of tactical urbanism can address the increasing inequality of urban development around the globe Featuring proposals for six global metropolises New York Mumbai Rio de Janeiro Istanbul Hong Kong and Lagos each developed by a team pairing local practitioners with international researchers Uneven Growth documents the brainstorming sessions and workshops Interviews with each team and essays by leading scholars on the issue make the publication a rich resource for students and professionals alike and a catalyst for worldwide change

The Social (Re)Production of Architecture Doina Petrescu,Kim Trogal,2017-07-14 The Social Re Production of Architecture brings the debates of the right to the city into today's context of ecological economic and social crises Building on the 1970s discussions about the production of space which French sociologist Henri Lefebvre considered a civic right the authors question who has the right to make space and explore the kinds of relations that are produced in the process In the emerging post capitalist era this book addresses urgent social and ecological imperatives for change and opens up questions around architecture's engagement with new forms of organization and practice The book asks what new kinds of social can architecture re produce and what kinds of politics values and actions are needed The book features 24 interdisciplinary essays written by leading theorists and practitioners including social thinkers economic theorists architects educators urban curators feminists artists and activists from different generations and global contexts The essays discuss the diverse global locations with work taking different and specific forms in these different contexts A cutting edge critical text which rethinks both practice and theory in the light of recent crises making it key reading for students academics and practitioners

The Urbanism of Exception Martin J.

Murray,2017-03-10 This book argues that understanding global urbanism in the twenty first century requires us to cast our gaze upon vast city regions without an urban core

The Routledge Handbook of Placemaking Cara Courage,Tom Borrup,Maria Rosario Jackson,Kylie Legge,Anita McKeown,Louise Platt,Jason Schupbach,2020-12-30 This Handbook is the first to explore the emergent field of placemaking in terms of the recent research teaching and learning and practice agenda for the next few years Offering valuable theoretical and practical insights from the leading scholars and practitioners in the field it provides cutting edge interdisciplinary research on the placemaking sector Placemaking has seen a paradigmatic shift in urban design planning and policy to engage the community voice This Handbook examines the development of placemaking its emerging theories and its future directions The book is structured in seven distinct sections curated by experts in the areas concerned Section One provides a glimpse at the history and key theories of placemaking and its interpretations by different community sectors Section Two studies the transformative potential of placemaking practice through case studies on different places methodologies and theoretical frameworks It also reveals placemaking's potential to nurture a holistic community engagement social justice and human centric urban environments Section Three looks at the politics of placemaking to consider who is included and who is excluded from its practice and if the concept of placemaking needs to be reconstructed Section Four deals with the scales and scopes of art based placemaking moving from the city to the neighborhood and further to the individual practice It juxtaposes the voice of the practitioner and professional alongside that of the researcher and academic Section Five tackles the socio economic and environmental placemaking issues deemed pertinent to emerge more sustainable placemaking practices Section Six emphasizes placemaking's intersection with urban design and planning sectors and includes case studies of generative planning practice The final seventh section draws on the expertise of placemakers researchers and evaluators to present the key questions today new methods and approaches to evaluation of placemaking in related fields and notions for the future of evaluation practices Each section opens with an introduction to help the reader navigate the text This organization of the book considers the sectors that operate alongside the core placemaking practice This seminal Handbook offers a timely contribution and international perspectives for the growing field of placemaking It will be of interest to academics and students of placemaking urban design urban planning and policy architecture geography cultural studies and the arts The Routledge Companion to Architecture and Social Engagement Farhan Karim, 2018-05-11

Socially engaged architecture is a broad and emerging architectural genre that promises to redefine architecture from a market driven profession to a mix of social business altruism and activism that intends to eradicate poverty resolve social exclusion and construct an egalitarian global society The Routledge Companion to Architecture and Social Engagement offers a critical enquiry of socially engaged architecture's current context characterized by socio economic inequity climate change war increasing global poverty microfinance the evolving notion of professionalism the changing conception of public and finally the growing academic interest in re visioning the social role of architecture Organized around case studies from the United States Brazil Venezuela the United Kingdom South Africa Rwanda Burkina Faso Nigeria Nepal Pakistan Iran Thailand Germany Australia Taiwan and Japan the book documents the most important recent developments in the field By examining diverse working methods and philosophies of socially engaged architecture the handbook shows how socially engaged architecture is entangled in the global politics of poverty reconstruction of the public sphere changing role of the state charity and neoliberal urbanism The book presents debates around the issue of whether architecture actually empowers the participants and alleviates socio economic exclusion or if it instead indirectly sustains an exploitative capitalism Bringing together a range of theories and case studies this companion offers a platform to facilitate future lines of inquiry in education research and practice

New Modes Chris Bryant, Caspar Rodgers, Tristan Wigfall, 2019-02-07

New modes of practice are now emerging in architecture Rural Studio, Exyzt, Muf, Assemble and many more have led the way by challenging conventional ideas of The Architect and reclaiming the notion of architecture as something public that should work ultimately towards the collective good This quiet revolution is born out of a crisis in the profession and a wider vacuum in the political environmental and economic situation On the one hand architecture as a profession has seen its influence diminish rapidly over the last 50 years through privatisation and the dominance of finance while on the other hand it has also lacked collective courage and readiness to evolve Without necessarily being aware of each other studios around the world are now redefining the profession of architecture as something more proactive, self-aware and political They are broadening their skill sets and becoming deeply involved in their projects initiating them themselves financing them and running them Though much of this work is dealing with local issues at a relatively small scale it is inherently ambitious with global application Contributors include Shumi Bose, Indy Johar, Alison Killing, Douglas Murphy and Finn Williams Featured architects Aterlier d'Architecture, Autograde, AAA, adamo, faiden, Baupiloten, Grupo Toma, Hector Inteligencias Colectivas, raumlaborberlin, studioBASAR, Studio GutGut, Taller Ken and We Made That

Informal Market

Worlds Peter Mörtenböck, Helge Mooshammer, Teddy Cruz, 2015 The essays in the reader debate the scope of informality for generating economic, social and political change From discussing the conceptual challenges behind the development of a new political economy based on the philosophical, legal and social architecture of other markets to exploring how changing global relations are already initiating new forms of urban practice these analyses provide a thorough understanding of what is at stake in the new geography of Informal Market Worlds With contributions by Teddy Cruz, Keith Hart, Jiang Jun, Lawrence Liang, MAP Office, Vyjayanthi Rao, Ananya Roy, Saskia Sassen, AbdouMaliq Simone, Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, Ignacio Valero, Matias Viegner and others The accompanying atlas brings together more than 80 case studies on the spatial and visual culture of informal markets from around the world

Planning and Urban Growth Marion Clawson, Peter Geoffrey Hall, 1973

Better Not Bigger Eben Fodor, 1999 Contrary to accepted wisdom rapid urban growth can leave communities permanently scarred, deeply in debt with unaffordable housing, a lost sense of community and sacrificed environmental quality In Better NOT Bigger Fodor explodes the fundamental myth that growth is good for us and that more development will bring in more tax money, add jobs, lower housing costs and reduce property taxes Lively and well illustrated Better NOT Bigger provides insights, ideas and tools to empower citizens to switch off their local growth machine by debunking the pro-growth rhetoric Highly accessible to ordinary citizens as well as professional planners
