R. Malatesha Joshi, Catherine A.
McBride, Bestern Kaani, Gad Elbeheri

Unisa Study Teaching Foundation Phase 2014:

2014 International Conference on Advanced Education and Management (ICAEM2014) ,2014-02-13 The ICAEM2014 aims to bring together researchers educators and students from around the world in both industry and academia for sharing the state of art research results and applications for exploring new areas of research and development and for discussing emerging issues on education and management fields We received a total of 312 submissions from various parts of the world The Technical Program Committee worked very hard to have all papers reviewed before the review deadline The final technical program consists of 92 papers There are one keynote speech and 2 invited sessions The proceedings were published by DEStech Publications Inc and will submitted to Ei Compendex databases for indexing We would like to mention that due to the limitation of the conference venue capacity we are not able to include many fine papers in the technical program Our apology goes to those authors

Handbook of Literacy in Africa R. Malatesha Joshi,Catherine A. McBride,Bestern Kaani,Gad Elbeheri,2023-07-28 This volume highlights the shortcomings concerning literacy development in Africa and collates the current available literature based on empirical research in various countries in a coherent manner Further emphasized is how the current research can guide practical information to improve the literacy situation in Africa The research studies will encompass various fields such as linguistics neurosciences and education and will provide future research directions and instructional recommendations to improve the literacy situation in Africa

Empowering Students and Maximising Inclusiveness and Equality through ICT ,2021-04-06 Access to and participation in education are critical issues in contemporary South Africa Awareness of inclusiveness and equality is not recent having possibly first been described in the dawn of the millennium by the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO Drawing from the current framings in the SADC education systems the contributors argue that ICT has a key role to play in transformation Africanisation and decolonisation of education Contributors are Skye Adams Najma Agherdien Andrew Crouch Andries Du Plessis Nazira Hoosen Katijah Khoza Shangase Mhulaheni Maguvhe Khetsiwe Masuku Sharon Moonsamy Munyane Mophosho Nomfundo Moroe Ramashego Shila Mphahlele Ndileleni Mudzielwana Shonisani Mulovhedzi Anniah Mupawose Mapula Ngoepe Moshe Phoshoko Dhanashree Pillay Roshni Pillay Ben Sebothoma and Susan Thuketana

The Education Triple Cocktail Brahm Fleisch,2018-08-15 The Education Triple Cocktail brings together rigorous quantitative and qualitative research on a new approach to improving foundational teaching and learning for schoolchildren living in working class poor and remote rural communities in resource constrained systems like South Africa At the core of this book is the theory and evidence for a powerful new interlocking and mutually reinforcing change model Inspired by the AIDS treatment story the three pronged approach of structured daily lesson plans appropriate and high quality educational materials and one on one instructional coaching to help teachers transform their instructional practices in early grade classrooms shows that it will improve learning outcomes For education systems defined by low levels of early grade learning and profoundly unequal outcomes The Education Triple Cocktail offers a theoretically informed evidence based way forward This book will be of immense use to teachers students of Education policymakers and parents Effects of Government Mandates and Policies on Public Education in Africa, the Caribbean, and the Middle East Cynthia Szymanski Sunal, Oluseyi Matthew Odebiyi, Kagendo Mutua, 2022-06-29 This book examines the impact of government mandates and policies on public education in Africa the Caribbean and the Middle East It explores efforts to increase access and improve quality at all education levels including digital learning initiatives A scholarly inquiry into disciplinary practices in educational institutions Connie B. Zulu, Izak J. Oosthuizen, Charl C. Wolhuter, Corene de Wet, Rika Joubert, Ansie E. Kitching, Michael L. Marumo, Zahraa McDonald, Nicholas T. Mollo, Louis J. Oosthuizen, Ferdinand J. Potgieter, Bianke van Rooyen, Marius H. Smit, Amos T. Thebenyane, Andre van der Bijl, Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt, 2019-12-12 This book is a collection of chapters based on original research dealing with issues of discipline and disciplinary practices in educational institutions The aim of the book is to provide a scholarly and scientific perspective on the current state of discipline and disciplinary practices in schools and tertiary education settings The issue of discipline is investigated from diverse paradigmatic and methodological perspectives presenting empirical as well as also philosophical research The empirical perspective includes quantitative positivistic qualitative interpretive and mixed methods pragmatic designs and worldviews This book offers a ground breaking contribution to the field of learner and student discipline with insights into disciplinary practices and issues in educational institutions not hitherto researched such as Technical Vocational Education and Training colleges and universities Balancing Individualism and Collectivism Janet McIntyre-Mills, Norma Romm, Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes, 2017-10-03 This book addresses the social and environmental justice challenge to live sustainably and well It considers the consequences of our social economic and environmental policy and governance decisions for this generation and the next The book tests out ways to improve representation accountability and re generation It addresses the need to take into account the ethical implications of policy and governance decisions in the short medium and long term based on testing out the implications for self other and the environment This book recognizes the negative impact that humans have had on the Earth s ecosystem and recommends a less anthropocentric way of looking at policies and governance The chapters discuss the geologic impact that people have had on the globe both positive and negative and brings awareness to the anthropocentric interventions that have influenced life on Earth during the Holocene era Based on these observations the authors discuss original ideas and critical reviews on ways to govern those who interpret the world in terms of human values and experience and to conduct an egalitarian lifestyle These ideas address the growing rise in the size of the ecological footprints of some at the expense of the majority the growth in unsustainable food choices and of displaced people and the need for a new sense of relationship with nature and other animals among other issues The chapters included in Balancing Individualism and Collectivism Social and Environmental Justice encourage readers to challenge the sustainability agenda of the anthropocentric life Proposed solutions to these unsustainable actions include structuralized interventions and volunteerism through encouragement and education with a focus on protecting current and future generations of life through new governmental etiquette and human cognizance Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Yearbook of International Organizations 2013-2014 (Volume 3) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2013-08-09 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Volume 3 allows readers to locate organizations by subjects or by fields of activity and specialization and includes an index to Volumes 1 through 3
