Does SNAP Decrease Food Insecurity? Mark Nord,2009 Self selection by more food needy households into the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program SNAP formerly called the Food Stamp Program makes it difficult to observe positive effects of the program in survey data This study investigates self selection and ameliorative program effects by examining households food security month by month for several months prior to initial receipt of SNAP benefits and for several months after joining the program Food security is observed to deteriorate in the 6 months prior to beginning to receive SNAP benefits and to improve shortly after The results clearly demonstrate the self selection by households into SNAP at a time when they are more severely food insecure Charts and tables

Science Activities for Elementary Students George C. Lorbeer,2000 Science Activities for Elementary Students Eleventh Edition a revision of George Lorbeer and Leslie Nelson s classic Science Activities for Children gives instructors practical fun hands on learning activities to help teach children about science and problem solving skills Each activity follows the same step by step format Problem Procedure Result Supplemental Information and Thought

Questions The activities are accompanied by simple illustrations that help clarify procedures and expected results With a total of nearly 600 activities in both spiral bound books future science teachers will find a wealth of ideas to help them become more effective in the classroom Science Activities for Elementary School Children features basic introductory activities while Science Activities for Middle School Children contains more rigorous more challenging higher level science activities The elementary text discusses basic ecology while the middle school book has activities about the Greenhouse Effect the Icehouse Effect Ozone Depletion and the Eutrophication of some of our fresh water supplies Both texts are an excellent and comprehensive resource that future and practicing teachers of elementary science will want to keep at arm s length for ready reference Development of NIR Detectors and Science Requirments for SNAP.
