Bruce Nauman Constance Lewallen, Dore Bowen, 2019-01-08 The first book devoted solely to Bruce Nauman s corridors and other architectural installations Bruce Nauman Spatial Encounters deftly explores the significance of these works in the development of his singular art practice examining them in the context of the period and in relation to other artists like Dan Graham Robert Morris Paul Kos and James Turrell Designed for viewer participation Bruce Nauman s architectural installations often confound expectations and induce physical and psychological unease The essays in this book consider these works which begin in 1969 and continue into the 1970s and beyond in terms of the physical perceptual and psychological pressures they exert on the participant Three interlocking perspectives on the topic Constance M Lewallen s historical overview Dore Bowen's case study of Nauman's 1970 Corridor Installation with Mirror San Jose Installation Double Wedge Corridor with Mirror and a supplementary essay by Ted Mann on Nauman's drawings provide a comprehensive and in depth approach The book coincides with the major retrospective exhibition Bruce Nauman Disappearing Acts at the Schaulager Museum Basel Switzerland March 17 August 26 2018 and the Museum of Modern Art and MoMA PS1 New York October 21 2018 March 17 2019

The Perpetuation of Site-Specific Installation Artworks in Museums Tatja Scholte, 2025-10-01 Site specific installations are created for specific locations and are usually intended as temporary artworks The Perpetuation of Site Specific Installation Artworks in Museums Staging Contemporary Art shows that these artworks consist of more than a singular manifestation and that their lifespan is often extended In this book Tatja Scholte offers an in depth account of the artistic production of the last forty years With a wealth of case studies the author illuminates the diversity of site specific art in both form and content as well as in the conservation strategies applied A conceptual framework is provided for scholars and museum professionals to better understand how site specific installations gain new meanings during successive stages of their biographies and may become agents for change in professional routines

Incarceration and Health Care Tamara White, 2024-10-02 There is a lack of control that exists when managing a chronic illness just as there is a lack of autonomy when one finds themselves living within the confines of a correctional facility How does one address these two precarious circumstances when they collide Research has revealed that incarcerated populations have a higher rate of infectious disease and chronic health issues than their non incarcerated counterparts How is this reality translated in a way that others might understand As an avenue to gain a new perspective this book provides a glimpse into the world of incarceration and health care management using art to translate this experience Activist art is effective and powerful for both the audience and the creator By revealing the reality of living with a chronic illness and how social determinants of health significantly impact one's status and start in life art holds the power to shift perspectives and deepen understandings not only of health care and incarceration but also to agitate for societal changes

Borderless Fashion Practice Vanessa Gerrie, 2023-06-16 Twenty first century fashion practice has become increasingly borderless and diverse in the digital era calling into question the very boundaries that define fashion in the Western cultural context Borderless Fashion Practice Contemporary Fashion in the Metamodern Age principally engages the work of four fashion designers Virgil Abloh Aitor Throup Iris Van Herpen and Eckhaus Latta whose work intersects with other creative disciplines such as art technology science architecture and graphic design They do their work in what Vanessa Gerrie calls the metamodern age the time and place where the polarization between the modern and the postmodern collapses Used as a framework to understand the current Western cultural zeitgeist Gerrie's exploration of the work of contemporary practitioners and theorists finds blurred borders and seeks to blur them further to the point of erasure

Installation Art Claire Bishop, 2005 Installation Art provides both a history and a full critical examination of this challenging area of contemporary art from 1960 to the present day Using case studies of significant artists and individual works Claire Bishop argues that as installation art requires its audience to physically enter the artwork in order to experience it installation pieces can be categorised by the type of experience they provide for the viewing subject As well as exploring the methodologies of the artists examined Bishop also explains the critical theory that informed their work While revising and in some cases re assessing many well known names this fully illustrated book will introduce the reader to a wide spectrum of younger artists some yet to receive critical attention Book jacket     The Art Bulletin ,2002 Includes section Notes and reviews     Bookforum ,2003     Handbook and List of Members ... Art Libraries Society of North America,2003     Art and the Power of Placement Victoria Newhouse,2005 Where and how an artwork is presented can enhance it or detract from it painting and sculpture can denote a religious political decorative or educational significance as well as aesthetic and commercial value Just how powerful the effect of placement can be is demonstrated in this book by case studies and comparisons of art installations     The Heart of the Mission Cary Cordova,2005     Take Place Thomas E.
