The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas Carlos Rojas, Eileen Chow, 2013-03-13 What does it mean for a cinematic work to be Chinese Does it refer specifically to a work's subject or does it also reflect considerations of language ethnicity nationality ideology or political orientation Such questions make any single approach to a vast field like Chinese cinema difficult at best Accordingly The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas situates the term more broadly among various different phases genres and distinct national configurations while taking care to address the consequences of grouping together so many disparate histories under a single banner Offering both a platform for cross disciplinary dialogue and a mapping of Chinese cinema as an expanded field this Handbook presents thirty three essays by leading researchers and scholars intent on yielding new insights and new analyses using three different methodologies Chapters in Part I investigate the historical periodizations of the field through changing notions of national and political identity all the way from the industry's beginnings in the 1920s up to its current forms in contemporary Hong Kong Taiwan and the global diaspora Chapters in Part II feature studies centered on the field's taxonomical formalities including such topics as the role of the Chinese opera in technological innovation the political logic of the Maoist film and the psychoanalytic formula of the kung fu action film Finally in Part III focus is given to the structural elements that comprise a work's production distribution and reception to reveal the broader cinematic apparatuses within which these works are positioned Taken together the multipronged approach supports a wider platform beyond the geopolitical and linguistic limitations in existing scholarship Expertly edited to illustrate a representative set of up to date topics and approaches The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Cinemas provides a vital addition to a burgeoning field still in its formative stages Editor & Publisher ,1913 The Indiana Weekly ,1901 In the Court of Appeals of the State of New York , African American Women Playwrights Christy Gavin,2012-10-12 This Guide includes the primary and secondary works and summaries of plays of 15 prominent African American women playwrights including Lorraine Hansberry Ntozake Shange Adrienne Kennedy Alice Childress Zora Neale Hurston Georgia Douglas Johnson During the last 10 to 15 years critical consideration of contemporary as well as earlier black women playwrights has blossomed Plays by black women are increasingly anthologized and two recently published anthologies devote themselves solely to black women dramatists In light of the growing interest in scholarship concerning African American women playwrights researchers and librarians need a bibliographical source that brings together the profiles interviews critical material and primary sources of black female playwrights This guide will provide a bibliographical essay reviewing the scholarship of black women playwrights as well as for each playwright a biography summaries of each play detailed annotations of secondary material and list of primary sources
