Stewart, Joseph M. Nicolai, Nathan Worku, 2024-12-31 This book provides an empirical analysis mapping and assessment of Canadian right wing extremist RWE groups and their conspiracy theories While the majority of studies on RWE groups focus on American and European actors this book critically examines conspiracies disseminated by Canadian actors on different online sites and social media platforms The authors deploy a mapping metaphor to chart the conspiratorial ideas that RWE groups create and share online The book also examines the infrastructural terrain that supports mainstream and alternative platforms and the dark monetization structures that act as important conduits for this negative messaging Theoretically the study is situated within the concepts of dark social movements where dark participation on dark platforms often occurs A conceptualization of conspiracy theories is developed by exploring four specific aspects 1 topics 2 targets 3 concerns and 4 actors This concept is operationalized by applying it to BitChute and Telegram The book also offers a historical understanding of different RWE groups and their ideological positions In addition it provides an empirical investigation of Google's autocomplete feature Amazon books the Dark Web and several other alternative social media sites It will be of interest to researchers of Canadian politics conspiracy theories and the far right Conservation Education and Outreach Techniques Susan K.

Jacobson, Mallory McDuff, Martha Monroe, 2015-09-03 The conservation of biological diversity depends on people's knowledge and actions. This book presents the theory and practice for creating effective education and outreach programmes for conservation. The authors describe an exciting array of techniques for enhancing school resources marketing environmental messages using social media developing partnerships for conservation and designing on site programmes for parks and community centres. Vivid case studies from around the world illustrate techniques and describe planning implementation and evaluation procedures enabling readers to implement their own new ideas effectively. Conservation Education and Outreach Techniques now in its second edition and updated throughout includes twelve chapters illustrated with numerous photographs showing education and outreach programmes in action each incorporating an extensive bibliography. Helpful text boxes provide practical tips guidelines and recommendations for further exploration of the chapter topics. This book will be particularly relevant to conservation scientists resource managers environmental educators students and citizen activists. It will also serve as a handy reference and a comprehensive text for a variety of natural resource and environmental professionals.
