Goodreads Choice Stem Kits Ideas:

Happier? Daniel Horowitz, 2017-11-01 When a cultural movement that began to take shape in the mid twentieth century erupted into mainstream American culture in the late 1990s it brought to the fore the idea that it is as important to improve one's own sense of pleasure as it is to manage depression and anxiety Cultural historian Daniel Horowitz's research reveals that this change happened in the context of key events World War II the Holocaust post war prosperity the rise of counter culture the crises of the 1970s the presidency of Ronald Reagan and the prime ministerships of Margaret Thatcher and David Cameron provided the important context for the development of the field today known as positive psychology Happier provides the first history of the origins development and impact of the way Americans and now many around the world shifted from mental illness to well being as they pondered the human condition This change which came about from the fusing of knowledge drawn from Eastern spiritual traditions behavioral economics neuroscience evolutionary biology and cognitive psychology has been led by scholars and academic entrepreneurs as they wrestled with the implications of political events and forces such as neoliberalism and cultural conservatism and a public eager for self improvement Linking the development of happiness studies and positive psychology with a broad series of social changes including the emergence of new media and technologies like TED talks blogs web sites and neuroscience as well as the role of evangelical ministers Oprah Winfrey's enterprises and funding from government agencies and private foundations Horowitz highlights the transfer of specialized knowledge into popular arenas Along the way he shows how marketing triumphed transforming academic disciplines and spirituality into saleable products Ultimately Happier illuminates how positive psychology one of the most influential academic fields of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries infused American culture with captivating promises for a happier society STEM Activity Book Jenny Jacoby, Sam Hutchinson, Catherine Bruzzone, 2019 STEM
