Critical theories Reading as Democracy in Crisis James Rovira, 2019-04-26 Reading as Democracy in Crisis Interpretation Theory History explores the dialectic between historical conditions and the reading strategies that arise from them Chapters covering Plato and Derrida G W F Hegel Karl Marx Ludwig Wittgenstein Robert Penn Warren Louise Rosenblatt Theodor Adorno Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida Judith Butler and Object Oriented Ontology and Digital Humanities provide overviews of and arguments about each subject s thought in its historical contexts suggesting how the reading strategies adopted in each case were in part motivated by specific historical circumstances As the introduction explains these circumstances often involved forms of democracy in crisis so that the collection as a whole is an engagement with the dialectic between democracies that are perpetually in crisis and the seemingly unlimited freedom of our reading practices

Queering

Multiculturalism Aret Karademir, 2018-09-15 Queering Multiculturalism argues for group specific rights for ethno cultural minorities but without ignoring that such rights may lead to ethnic chauvinism balkanization and the cultural marginalization of minorities within minorities such as ethnic LGBT people. Thus it aims to construct a liberal theory of minority rights to accommodate ethno cultural diversity without destroying ethno sexual diversity and without privileging one type of minority group over another. The Full Severity of Compassion Chana Kronfeld, 2015-12-09. Yehuda Amichai 1924-2000 was the foremost Israeli poet of the twentieth century and an internationally influential literary figure whose poetry has been translated into some 40 languages. Hitherto no comprehensive literary study of Amichai's poetry has appeared in English. This long awaited book seeks to fill the gap. Widely considered one of the greatest poets of our time and the most important Jewish poet since Paul Celan, Amichai is beloved by readers the world over. Beneath the carefully crafted and accessible surface of Amichai's poetry lies a profound, complex and often revolutionary poetic vision that deliberately disrupts traditional literary boundaries and distinctions. Chana Kronfeld focuses on the stylistic implications of Amichai's poetic philosophy and on what she describes as his acerbic critique of ideology. She rescues Amichai's poetry from complacent appropriations, showing in the process how his work obliges us to rethink major issues in literary studies including metaphor, intertextuality, translation and the politics of poetic form. In spotlighting his deeply egalitarian outlook, this book makes the experimental, iconoclastic Amichai newly compelling.

Recapturing the Personal Irving Epstein, 2006-11-21. This volume explores theoretical and practical applications of embodied knowledge in education, focusing on the contributions of Foucault, Bourdieu and Butler. It provides a sampling of important theoretical positions in the sociology of the body literature, rather than a comprehensive review.

Hysteria, Trauma and Melancholia Christina Wald, 2007-10-11. Hysteria, trauma and melancholia have not only become powerful tropes in modern day culture at large, they are also prominent in the theatre. How do contemporary plays employ these concepts? How does the staging of these disorders affect the aesthetics of the plays? What exchange relations between theory and theatre can be traced? Christina Wald pursues such questions in this new study, establishing the characteristics and concerns of The Drama of Hysteria, Trauma, Drama and The Drama of Melancholia through in depth readings of works by playwrights such as Anna Furse, Jerry Johnson, Sarah Daniels, Phylis Nagy, Claire Dowie, David Auburn, Marina Carr and Sarah Kane. Conceptualising hysteria, trauma and melancholia as performative maladies, Wald educes an exciting interaction of theatrical performance, psychiatric and psychoanalytic theory and the theory of gender performativity.
