But fully accepting her fate means taking a final terrifying step reuniting all three realms and embracing her place as Queen with warlord turned king Griffin at her side. Yet forging their kingdom can only mean going to war with Fisa and its violent Alpha Cat's own mother Andromeda. Although Cat used to be Andromeda's sole weakness that's no longer true. And while Andromeda seems to know every trick and spell Cat's own magic refuses to work like it should. When tragedy strikes Cat unleashes the power she's been afraid of all her life but her misuse of the Gods' gifts comes with a terrible price. Ripped away from Griffin and the home she's come to love Cat's only option is to fully accept the power she's always denied so that she can return to the people she loves confront her murderous mother and finish restoring her kingdom no matter the ultimate cost. It is the year 1815 and Mr. John Caesar is determined to help his younger sister Mary successfully enter London society. A high stakes endeavour at the best of times this task is made slightly more difficult by his family's non traditional background the pernicious whims of the ton and the ever present complication of living in a world full of scheming fairies and capricious gods. When Mary is cursed by the fair folk John sets out to save her. This choice throws him into the path of Captain Orestes James the handsome up from the ranks hero of Wellington's armies and his ragtag band of misfits. Together they must venture into a vicious world of fey bargains and sacrificial magic as they draw ever closer to rescuing Mary. But while John is no stranger to casual dalliances with soldiers he's never expected one to last or wanted one to until now.
