head of state small kitchens and front parlours to legislatures and presbyteries Anna Bryson and Sean McConville's wide interviewing experience has been condensed into this book. The material set out here has been acquired by trial error and reflection over a period of more than four decades. The interviewees have ranged from the delightfully straightforward to the painfully difficult to the near impossible with a sprinkling of those that were impossible. Successful interviewing draws on the survival skills of everyday life. This guide will help you to adapt, develop and apply these innate skills. Including a range of useful information such as sample waivers, internet resources, useful hints and checklists, it provides sound and plain speaking support for the oral historian, social scientist and investigator.

Video Shooter Barry Braverman, 2015-02-11
Tired of the all the Digital Filmmaking guidebooks that give you only the nuts and bolts of how to use a camera, Video Shooter 2e takes that how to knowledge and takes it a step further by showing you how to craft a story in your video. Barry Braverman is a highly experienced shooter whose name is gold in the field. This book covers everything from framing a shot to lighting to the type of camera and tripod one should use and perhaps most importantly how to translate the use of all this equipment and techniques into a story. Humorous and opinionated, the author provides anecdotes and full color illustrations that help you to learn the tricks of the trade. He gets right to the point of what you need to know to get good shots and on a budget. New to this edition: more up to date techniques involving HD technology; more coverage on the multi-skillset required of today's filmmakers who are asked to act simultaneously as Director, Director of Photography, Cinematographer, Sound Recordists, etc. Website including craft tips, equipment review blogs and a teacher's corner to support use of the book in film studies digital media class; includes student work completed in class using the text.
