Souffles Anfas Critical Anthology Moroccan Politics:

Souffles-Anfas Olivia C. Harrison, Teresa Villa-Ignacio, 2015-11-25 Souffles Anfas A Critical Anthology from the Moroccan Journal of Culture and Politics introduces and makes available for the first time in English an incandescent corpus of experimental leftist writing from North Africa Founded in 1966 by Abdellatif La bi and a small group of avant garde Moroccan poets and artists and banned in 1972 Souffles Anfas was one of the most influential literary cultural and political reviews to emerge in postcolonial North Africa An early forum for tricontinental postcolonial thought and writing the journal published texts ranging from experimental poems literary manifestos and abstract art to political tracts open letters and interviews by contributors from the Maghreb the Middle East Africa Europe and the Americas The essays poems and artwork included in this anthology by the likes of Abdelkebir Khatibi Tahar Ben Jelloun Albert Memmi Etel Adnan Sembene Ousmane Ren Depestre and Mohamed Melehi offer a unique window into the political and artistic imaginaries of writers and intellectuals from the Global South and resonate with particular acuity in the wake of the Arab Spring A critical introduction and section headnotes make this collection the perfect companion for courses in postcolonial theory world literature and poetry in translation Nostalgic Rebels: Politics, Aesthetics, and Selfhood in Postcolonial Morocco Khalid

Lyamlahy, 2025-05-23 Mohammed Kha r Eddine 1941 1995 Abdelk bir Khatibi 1938 2009 and Abdellatif La bi 1942 are three of the most important francophone Moroccan writers to have emerged in the 1960s Belonging to the Souffles generation named after the journal of culture and politics founded in 1966 they played a major role in cultural decolonization and the development of Moroccan literature This book examines their works and legacy through the dual lenses of revolt and nostalgia By weaving together comparative close readings of their writings with an analysis of the broader historical and political context in Morocco the book demonstrates that these writers have used revolt and nostalgia to address state sponsored violence grapple with uncertainties about the writing process and advance or revitalize their political and aesthetic projects In doing so this study traces a literary genealogy of political resistance aesthetic subversion and nostalgic reconstruction in postcolonial Morocco while offering a nuanced historical perspective that is closely attuned to the specificities of Moroccan postcoloniality and sensitive to individual trajectories and experiences The book covers a wide range of literary genres including poetry theater prose fiction and autobiography all analyzed through a distinctively Moroccan historical and cultural lens providing new insights into Moroccan literature and the theories of revolt and nostalgia

Multilingual Literature as World Literature Jane Hiddleston, Wen-chin Ouyang, 2021-05-06 Multilingual Literature as World Literature examines and adjusts current theories and practices of world literature particularly the conceptions of world global and local reflecting on the ways that multilingualism opens up the borders of language nation and genre and makes visible different modes of circulation across languages nations media and cultures The contributors to Multilingual Literature as World Literature examine four major areas of critical research First by looking at how engaging with multilingualism as a mode of reading makes visible the multiple pathways of circulation including as aesthetics or poetics emerging in the literary world when languages come into contact with each other Second by exploring how politics and ethics contribute to shaping multilingual texts at a particular time and place with a focus on the local as a site for the interrogation of global concerns and a call for diversity Third by engaging with translation and untranslatability in order to consider the ways in which ideas and concepts elude capture in one language but must be read comparatively across multiple languages And finally by proposing a new vision for linguistic creativity beyond the binary structure of monolingualism versus multilingualism Abdelkébir Khatibi Jane Hiddleston, Khalid Lyamlahy, 2020-10-23 Abdelk bir Khatibi is one of the most important voices to emerge from North Africa in postcolonial studies This book is the first to offer a thoroughgoing analysis in English of all aspects of his multifaceted thought as it ranges from Moroccan politics to Arabic calligraphy and from decolonisation to interculturality Contemporary Arab Thought Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab, 2025-04-29 In the last third of the twentieth century the Arab intellectual and political scene polarized between totalizing doctrines nationalist Marxist and religious and radical critique Arab thinkers were reacting to the disenchanting experience of postindependence and a widespread sense of malaise as well as to authoritarianism intolerance injustice failed development and successive defeats by Israel The foundational account of these responses Contemporary Arab Thought illuminates the relationship between cultural and political critique in the work of major Arab thinkers Elizabeth Suzanne Kassab also connects Arab debates to the postcolonial issues of Latin America and Africa revealing the shared struggles of different regions Since its first publication in 2009 this book has stood as the foremost account of contemporary Arab debates on culture philosophy modernity tradition identity and liberation It is widely used in Middle Eastern studies courses and it has become a classic in the field of Arab intellectual history Contemporary Arab Thought now features an extensive new introduction that reconsiders post 1967 Arab intellectual history in light of the 2011 uprisings and the upheavals that have occurred over the intervening years Kassab critically reflects on the book s arguments and the responses it has provoked and she surveys the new preoccupations that have emerged in Arab debates since 2011 As crises again overtake the Middle East this landmark work continues to offer indispensable insight into the richness of contemporary Arab thought Situating Global Art

Sarah Dornhof, Nanne Buurman, Birgit Hopfener, Barbara Lutz, 2018-09-05 In recent years the term global art has become a catchphrase in contemporary art discourses Going beyond additive notions of canon expansion this volume encourages a differentiated inquiry into the complex aesthetic cultural historical political epistemological and socio economic implications of both the term global art itself and the practices it subsumes Focusing on diverse examples of art curating historiography and criticism the contributions not only take into account new hegemonies and exclusions but also the shifting conditions of transcultural art production circulation and reception Tunisia's Modern Woman Amy Aisen Kallander, 2021-06-03

Looking at women politics and culture in Tunisia from 1950s independence to the 1970s highlighting the centrality of women to post colonial state building Natives against Nativism Olivia C. Harrison, 2023-04-04 Examining the intersection of Palestine solidarity movements and antiracist activism in France from the 1970s to the present For the past fifty years the Palestinian question has served as a rallying cry in the struggle for migrant rights in postcolonial France from the immigrant labor associations of the 1970s and Beur movements of the 1980s to the militant decolonial groups of the 2000s In Natives against Nativism Olivia C Harrison explores the intersection of anticolonial solidarity and antiracist activism from the 1970s to the present Natives against Nativism analyzes a wide range of texts novels memoirs plays films and militant archives that mobilize the twin figures of the Palestinian and the American Indian in a crossed critique of Eurocolonial modernity Harrison argues that anticolonial solidarity with Palestinians and Indigenous Americans has been instrumental in developing a sophisticated critique of racism across imperial formations in this case France the United States and Israel Serving as the first relational study of antiracism in France Natives against Nativism observes how claims to indigeneity have been deployed in multiple directions both in the ongoing struggle for migrant rights and racial justice and in white nativist claims in France today
