Sound Linkage Peter J. Hatcher, Fiona J. Duff, Charles Hulme, 2014-02-25 The updated edition of this successful resource has been developed to support children with reading delays and dyslexia. It contains a phonological training programme an explanation of how this programme can be embedded within a broader reading intervention a standardized test of phonological awareness and a methodology to grade children's reading books. This third edition has been revised throughout to include the latest developments in the field. These resources have been used with a wide range of children and found to be suitable for use with any reading delayed children irrespective of cognitive ability and age. All activities are accompanied by a set of photocopiable record sheets a set of pictures and an appendix of additional activities useful in helping children master a particular skill or to reinforce existing learning. The ten sections of activities within the guide include identification of words and syllables identification and supply of rhyming words identification and discrimination of phonemes and blending segmentation deletion substitution and transposition of phonemes within words. Sound Linkage Peter J. Stress in the Workplace Jack Dunham, 2000-10-19 This book consists of nine chapters written by internationally known and respected research workers. Lennart Levi presents a psychosocial framework for understanding sickness and health in the workplace. James Campbell Quick, Debra Nelson and Jonathan Quick give an account of their research with executives in industry and the US Air Force. Tores Theorell focusses his research on the increasing demands on workers and the reducing control they have over their working lives. Johannes Siegrist is also concerned with imbalance in this case between effort and reward at work. Susan Cartwright and Sheila Penchal report on the effects of the increase of mergers and acquisitions in the 1990's. Howard Khan's focus is the stress of working for clearing banks, merchant banks and foreign owned banks in London and New York. Sandra Fielden and Lyn Davidson present evidence of the sources of stress of women in managerial positions. Cheryl Traver's analysis of the rising costs of teacher stress is very relevant for policy makers and managers. Michiel Kompier and Tage Kristensen make recommendations for planning and implementing stress management strategies in the workplace.
